Star Billing?

It might be a case where Clive Davis did not deserve star billing. Or should he have been billed at all?

The third paragraph of a press statement concerning the two year old grand jury investigation of the music industry mentions the name Clive J. Davis and later the fact that he will be indicted for failing to report taxable income, darkly hinting that he faces a possible 24 years imprisonment and a $45,000 fine.

Elsewhere in the statement are charges of fraud, payola, perjury, conspiracy involving other individuals and record companies, and not Davis. But the grand jury makes Davis — and this was followed up in the same way by the consumer media — the star.

It may be that Davis is the most visible and newsworthy person indicted, and he himself has certainly made his presence felt during the two year investigation, but the plain fact remains that he is up before the grand jury for income tax evasion only.

Davis issued a statement himself after Goldstein's conference. It said in part: "For two years my family and I have suffered from malicious rumors and insinuations growing out of the investigation of the record industry."

Those rumors and insinuations over the past 24 months have linked the Davis name with everything from organized crime to drug peddling.

Finally when the grand jury hands down the indictment, Davis, who maintains his innocence, is hit with the less dramatic charge of tax evasion.

But individuals and companies accused of the conspiracy, the payola, the fraud charges all take second billing to Davis, because, obviously, the grand jury knows the publicity value of Davis' name.

Indeed it could be argued that Davis' name, in view of the fact that he was not brought up on payola or any of the other charges involving fraud (and for which he was investigated), should not have been used for its obvious publicity value as an attraction for the public media. Or should it have been included at all within this context?

However, if proven, all the charges laid down by the grand jury will pose a serious treat to the moral health of the music industry, particularly, as was stated this week, because the investigation is ongoing and nationwide. It is certainly not something to be taken lightly or covered up. Housecleaning within the industry, if it has to be done, should be.

Capitol Brings Suit Against Grand Funk, MCA

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records, Inc., has brought suit in New York Supreme Court to prevent Grand Funk Railroad from performing for MCA Records until the group has fulfilled its obligation to deliver to Capitol the fifth and sixth albums of new material which Capitol alleges are called for under Capitol's existing six-album contract.

The Capitol contract, which commenced November 21, 1972, provides for the recording of two albums per year over a three-year term, with a total guarantee against royalties of $3,000,000.

Last week, Grand Funk announced its intention to fulfill its remaining obligations to Capitol by delivering a two-LP

With her first Arista Records album, simply titled "Melissa," Melissa Manchester has established herself. No doubt it she has come a long way from her days in the shadows as a backup singer. Now she takes the spotlight, commands and runs her own show, emerging as a singer and a songwriter.

Not only is the "Melissa" album a major hit for Ms. Manchester but also enjoying tremendous success is the single culled from it — "Midnight Blue." Arista is at present discussing pulling another single from the album with "Party Music," "Just Too Many People" and "We've Got Time" as prime favorites.

Melissa, who has just finished a major tour, is at present in Los Angeles in the Daven Studios working on a new album with Vini Poncia producing.

Grand Jury Indictments:

Payola Charges Against Gamble, Huff, Tarnopol And Execs; Davis Charged With Income Tax Evasion Only

NEW YORK — After two years of investigation into allegations of criminal wrongdoing within the music recording industry, the federal grand juries sitting in Newark, Philadelphia and Los Angeles returned seven indictments which charged 19 individuals and six corporations with a variety of criminal offenses including conspiracy, interstate travel to commit bribery, mail fraud, wire fraud, income tax evasion, failing to file income tax returns, interstate transportation of stolen property, perjury and the making of illegal payments to radio station personnel.

Although the word "drugola" and talk of drug peddling for disk jockey favors was bandied about throughout the business as a result of numerous consumer press articles alluding to such goings on in the industry, the indictments made no mention of drugs whatsoever.

It also was of great interest to the trade that there seemed to be almost two separate parts to the indictments, even though the grand juries issued them in one blanket statement.

Clive Davis, who, during the past two years was torn apart with innuendoes in the consumer press as having been involved in drug deals, payola and every other conceivable evil, was indicted in the southern district of New York on charges of failing to report over $90,000 in taxable income on which over $45,000 in income taxes were due during the years 1970 thru 1972, and for filing false income tax returns for the same years. These charges appeared to be the same as the charges CBS brought against Davis in a civil suit charging misappropriation of company funds when he was president of CBS Records . . . funds which Davis allegedly used to pay for the decoration of his apartment as well as for inviting guests to a bar mitzvah banquet.

Although many others were charged with many other forms of criminal wrongdoing the above were the only charges against Davis, leading many industry figures to state that his name was blanketed with all of the others under the general charges because he was the best known figure on the consumer level. And it resulted in one edition of a New York newspaper featuring Davis' photo on the front page of an early edition announcing the indictments.

An official response by Davis to the indictments was the following: "For two years my family and I have suffered from malicious rumors and insinuations growing out of the investigation of the record industry. The indictment against me today clearly establishes that all those rumors and insinuations were false.

"What is involved are tax charges. The issues are apparently the same as those raised in the CBS civil suit against me which was brought over two years ago. I am innocent of those charges, and I shall respond to those issues at the appropriate time and place."

Alan Hirschfield, president of Columbia Pictures Corp., parent company of Arista Records of which Clive Davis is now president, issued a statement noting that Davis had not been charged with any alleged payola or "other similar matters."

He added: "Columbia fully intends to continue its relationship with Mr. Davis as president of its Arista Records subsidiary."

But the surprising lack of news in the indictment against Davis in no way offset the impact on the industry of the charges against other execs and companies.

The federal grand jury sitting in Newark indicted Nat Tarnopol of Brunswick and Dakar Records on charges of conspiracy, mail fraud, wire fraud and evasion of personal and corporate taxes.

Charged with Tarnopol on the conspiracy, mail and wire fraud counts of the indictment are other officers and employees of Brunswick and Dakar: Pete Garris, Carl Davis, Irving Wiegan, Lee Shep and Melvin Moore. The indictment also names as a defendant Carmine DeNoia, also known as Doc Wassel, who sold various items of merchandise including Brunswick and Dakar records.

All seven Brunswick personnel were charged by the grand jury with "having devised and executed a scheme whereby Brunswick and Dakar Records would,

Grand Jury Probe: Industry Reaction

NEW YORK — "This is just what the record industry needs . . ." summarizes the basic feelings of all record industry execs who read the accounts of the indictments handed down last week by the federal grand juries sitting in Newark. "It's so difficult now to get anything played on radio but the giant hits by the superstars, imagine what it's going to be like after the news hits the streets," was the way a number of people felt about the effect of the indictments on the record business in general.

The fact that United States attorneys Jonathan L. Goldstein (N.J.); Robert Curran (eastern district of Pa.) and William D. Keller (central district of Calif.) who handed down the indictments in Newark at a press conference last week, said that their investigation will continue and be on-going in each of their districts, left most industry brass with the feeling that such news might put a continuing damper on the record industry and deter the breaking of new talent.

It is no secret that during the past year, because of the difficulties the nation's economy has been going through, record manufacturers have been hard-pressed to watch costs and overhead. Unemployment has been much higher than the national average among teenagers, college graduates and blacks. In many areas with a large black population, unemployment has been quoted in the 20% plus range. The volume of big hits, possibly because of the increased cost to the consumer of singles and LPs in combination with the unemployment factor, has been down considerably.

During the past two years, since word was out that grand juries across the U.S. were investigating the record industry for criminal wrong-doings, bribery, etc., there has been a noticeable tightening of playlists at the radio level. Whether this was attributable to the threat of investigation hanging over the heads of radio executives or just some reflection of the general economic slowdown is hard to define.

One aspect of the revelations alleged by the grand jury has been the somewhat low key approach by the media, particularly in view of the relish that some of the more investigative reporters on newspapers attacked the story when it first broke two years ago. The grand jury proceedings were reported but the matter appears to have rested with that for now. Perhaps the influx of scandal from Watergate to the CIA that the public has had drummed into its consciousness over the past two years makes the troubles of the recording business — if any — seem like small potatoes.

RCA To Begin Regional Sales, Promo Meetings

NEW YORK — Last Friday, RCA Records began a series of three regional sales and promotion meetings in Monticello, N.Y., Indianapolis and San Diego for introduction of its July product to members of its sales and promotion staff throughout the nation.

According to Jack Kiernan, division vice president of marketing, "We have had an excellent first six months of 1975 and these meetings are being conducted to intensify our sales impetus through the balance of the year. In addition we are introducing our field staff to the new talent we will be debuting to help maintain our momentum through the end of the year."

An executive team headed by RCA Records president Ken Glancy and including Mike Berniker, director of contemporary a&r; Tom Draper, director of r&b a&r; Mel Liberman, division vice president of commercial operations; Jack Kiernan, division vice president of marketing; John Rosica, director of product merchandising; and Herb Helman, division vice president of public affairs are flying to each of the meetings to emphasize the company's commitment to introduce new artists during the coming months.

Overall planning for the meetings has been under the supervision of Dick Carter, director of sales, and Tony Montgomery, director of national promotion.

In addition to introduction of July product, those attending the meetings will be apprised of plans for continuing campaigns on other new artists including Michael Bolotin, Deadly Nightshade, Elliott Murphy, Nancy Nevins, Pure Prairie League, Lonnie Liston Smith, Tomita, Leslie West and Roger Whittaker.

There also will be previews of new product coming from RCA's established artists, as well as sales and promotion campaigns being formulated to introduce that product.

Col. Sets Dylan 'Basement' LP

NEW YORK — Columbia Records is releasing Bob Dylan and The Band's "Basement Tapes" LP at the beginning of July. The two-record set contains material recorded in sessions held between June and October in the Band's "Big Pink" upstate New York home, including among the 24 songs several tunes/performances which have been thus far unavailable, even on bootleg LPs. According to Columbia, all the tunes were cut live, and there has been no overdubbing. The album was remastered for the upcoming release.

The recording sessions which resulted in the "Basement Tapes" took place following Dylan and The Band's 1966 national tour, and the personnel on the album are: Bob Dylan, Rick Danko, Garth Hudson, Richard Manuel, Robbie Robertson and Levon Helm. According to Columbia vice president and general manager Bruce Lundvall, "the material that appears on "The Basement Tapes" album is valid as much more than a mere retrospective of the very fruitful collaboration of Bob Dylan and The Band in the mid-to-late sixties. In addition to filling the gap that has been left open in the careers of these major artists, this music stands today as being as vital and important as it was the day it was recorded."

A major merchandise campaign is planned in support of "The Basement Tapes."

WEBB Guilty Of Radio Copyright Infringement

NEW YORK — Radio station WEBB in Baltimore has been found guilty of copyright infringement by Judge Joseph H. Young of the U.S. District Court in that city. Following a trial which featured tape recordings of the station's broadcast, the judge found 31 unlawful and unlicensed performances of copyrighted musical works and ordered the station to pay $9,250 plus legal costs. Among the songs played without any payment to the writers or publishers were "Superstition" by Stevie Wonder, Marvin Gaye's "Trouble Man," Buddy Miles' "Them Changes," and "I Shall Be Released" by Bob Dylan, in addition to songs by Hal David & Burt Bacharach, Johnny Bristol & Marilyn McLeod, J. Kern & D. Fields, B. Comden & A. Green & J. Styne, and a number of others. In addition to the ordered payments, Judge Young enjoined any future performances of these songs on WEBB, the station owned by J. B. Broadcasting — a corporation whose majority stockholder is soul artist James Brown.

Plaintiffs in the action were writer and publisher members of ASCAP. According to the licensing organization, this action, which combined two separate suits launched in 1973, was initiated under the U.S. Copyright Act of 1909 which provides for damages of a minimum of $250 for each unlicensed performance of a copyrighted musical work. The statute requires that a public performance for profit of a copyrighted musical work must be licensed. ASCAP has been offering bulk musical licenses for the works of all its members since 1914. However, WEBB has not had a licence since J.B. Broadcasting bought control in 1970.

The suit represents the sixth and seventh ASCAP legal actions in the past 5 years for unlicensed performances against the radio stations owned by James Brown. Another lawsuit against WEBB was filed on Feb. 26 which has not yet come to trial.

"America's songwriters and publishers have a clear and well established right to compensation for the use of their works," noted ASCAP general counsel Bernard Korman, "and we will continue to sue users who refuse licenses, whether they are radio stations, taverns or others who perform music publicly for profit. One would expect a writer of Mr. Brown's standing to be among the first to want to comply with the copyright law."

Anti-Piracy Action:

Injunction Vs. MVC, Sicom; Tapes Siezed In NYC, Calif.

NEW YORK — In three anti-piracy developments last week, an injunction was issued against MVC Distributing Corp. and Sicom Electronics Corp., and allegedly pirated tapes were seized in separate actions in New York City and Bakersfield, Calif.

Judge Philip Pratt of the U.S. District Court for eastern Michigan issued a permanent injunction barring MVC Distributing and Sicom Electronics, as well as the president of the companies, Donald D. Merry, from the unauthorized duplication of sound recordings produced by A&M Records and CBS, Inc. The judge ordered the defendants to destroy their existing inventory of unauthorized record or tape duplications and also to file a sworn statement with the court verifying their compliance with the order. In addition, the two companies have been ordered to file verified accountings identifying the recordings and the numbers of each that had been duplicated, prior to the court's decision on damages to be awarded. Pending such adjudication the two companies were enjoined from selling, transferring or disposition of any of their machinery, equipment or other capital assets.

In a separate development, FBI agents seized more than 5800 allegedly pirated versions of copyrighted tapes in a raid on Glow Electronics Ltd. at 786 Sixth Ave. in New York City. Arrested was Roger M. Hoff, vice president of the firm, charged with violation of the federal copyright law. The tapes had an estimated retail value of $28,500, and artists featured in the recordings included Eric Clapton, Neil Diamond, Herbie Mann and Olivia Newton-John.

In Bakersfield more than 160 law enforcement officials conducted a raid on a swap meet at an automobile racetrack, seizing about 7500 pirated tapes. No arrests have been made as yet. This is the ninth such move in a series of raids being conducted on swap meets by the California Dept. of Justice.

by various illegal methods, surreptiously be sold at below wholesale prices.

The Brunswick/Dakar defendants, as a result of this scheme, obtained over $334,000 in cash and $28,000 in merchandise and used portions of this to make illegal payments to radio station personnel, alleged the indictment.

A federal grand jury sitting in Philadelphia handed down an 86 count indictment to the Gamble-Huff operation in that city, naming seven men and six companies and involving conspiracy, mail fraud, wire fraud, interstate travel to commit bribery and violations of the payola statute.

Named in the indictment are Kenneth Gamble, Leon Huff, Earl Shelton, Joe Medlin, Edward Richardson, Harry Coombs, and Benjamin Krass. Krass was a former partner in Gamble Records and now runs a men's clothing store, Krass Brothers Clothiers, which features in the indictment.

Companies named in the Philadelphia indictment are Assorted Music, Gamble Huff Records, North Bay Records, Gamble Records, Hugs Management and Cheyenne Productions.

This indictment alleges that the defendants went to New York, Baltimore, Washington, Atlanta, Houston, St Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities and paid "in excess of $25,000 cash to radio station personnel. Further, disc jockeys received over $6,000 worth of clothing from the Krass store when they visited Philadelphia. Via telegrams, another $3,200 was sent to radio station personnel, stated the Philadelphia grand jury.

Airline tickets to the value of $2,300, plus other goods and services were provided to radio station personnel.

The single radio person named, by the Newark grand jury, was program director for WAOK-AM, Atlanta, Paul Burke Johnson who was charged with perjury, alleging that while under oath, he denied receiving money or clothing from record companies or their representatives. The indictment stated that Johnson received money orders from Gamble, paid for by Assorted Music, from Shelton paid for by Neptune Records and that he also received clothing from North Bay Records and Assorted.

United States Attorney for Newark, Jonathan L. Goldstein, stated that disc jockeys and radio station personnel had "been very cooperative" throughout the investigation.

The federal grand jury sitting in Los Angeles turned up record promoter Fred Rector, charged him with failing to file timely tax returns and receiving cash and records from record companies employing him which he sold to record distributors throughout the nation.

The indictment alleges that Rector did not report a 1973 gross income of over $66,000, nor did he file a return in 1973 showing his income to be over $37,000.

Along with Davis, the New York grand jury charged David Wynshaw, former director of artist relations for CBS Records, with income tax evasion covering the years 1969 through 1971. For those years Wynshaw paid $30,731 tax on a reported income of $115,689 whereas the jury claims his true income was over $340,000 and tax due and owing was $145,000.

Wynshaw was also charged with Pasquale Falconio of conspiring with each other and others not named in mail and wire fraud and interstate transportation of stolen property.

The jury charged that Falconio set up five sham companies and arranged for fake invoices to be submitted to CBS. The sham companies were paid, through arrangements made by Wynshaw, over $75,000 by the label. Companies were Del Tone Trucking, Sutton Travel, R.F. Travel, D. Grosser and Falconio Limosine Service.

Attorney Goldstein said that the investigations were "the first stage in a nationwide ongoing investigation," adding that the music industry in other cities would also be investigated. He also stated that there was "nothing connecting" Gamble and Huff with CBS Records with regard to illegal activities.

A GOLDEN SURPRISE— Arista recording artist Barry Manilow was honored at a special party last week held at New York's new Make Believe Ballroom. The occasion was to celebrate Manilow's being named Best New Male Vocalist in the mid-year Cash Box poll, but Barry had more in store for him than he was expecting. After receiving the commemorative plaque from executive vice president Marty Ostrow, Arista president Clive Davis surprised Manilow by presenting him with a gold record for his "Barry Manilow II" album which had just gone gold earlier that week.

Trini Lopez: In Tune With Today

NEW YORK — Trini Lopez, who is on the Cash Box charts at #87 this week, is enjoying his first hit single in six years. The song, Richard Supa's "Somethin' 'Bout You Baby I Like," which was a mild success for Tom Jones two years ago, is shaping up to be Trini's biggest hit since "If I Had A Hammer" which rose to the top of the charts in 16 countries in the summer of 1963.

The record, which is Trini's debut for Private Stock Records, also marks the fruitation of Trini's long standing ambition to enter the field of production. "I always wanted to produce myself," Trini told Cash Box last week. "With this record which I produced with Stan Silverberg, I was finally able to do my own thing and call my own shots."

The record, which Trini recorded along with three other sides with the help of some seasoned west coast studio musicians like Tom Scott, Dean Parks and Jim Gordon was brought to the attention of Private Stock several months ago, who in turn, signed Trini to a long term worldwide contract. With the exception of one Spanish album which he recorded for Capitol last year, Trini has not been with a label since his ten year affiliation with Reprise terminated in 1973 after a total of 22 albums.

"Private Stock has faith in me and we're going to work together to try to make "Somethin' 'Bout You Baby" a worldwide hit. I've already been on the road for two weeks promoting my record here and it looks like it's about to take off." The Private Stock deal provides for Trini to also record in Spanish and French for distribution in international markets. This week he embarks on his first European tour in five years and will bring with him, a show that has made him a featured attraction in Las Vegas and New York supperclubs. "I usually open the show with "La Bamba' and go through some contemporary songs before ending with a medley of some of my hits like 'Lemon Tree,' 'Cindy' and 'If I Had A Hammer.' The repertoire keeps changing because there are so many good songwriters today. One song I heard the other day which I'd like to do is 'Only Women' by Alice Cooper."

The competition for best Lynyrd Skynyrd in-store display was won by Mrs. Swenson of "Mom's Place." Mrs. Swenson redecorated her entire shop for the occasion. She brought furniture into her store from her home, tacked up brick wallpaper, bought a pot-belly stove and embroidered "Sweet Home Alabama" for a wall hanging. Pictured (left photo) in front of one corner of the prize-winning shop are (standing, l to r) Ronnie Van Zant, Allen Collins, (seated, l to r) Artimus Pyle, Gary Rossington, Mrs. Swenson, Billy Powell, Leon Wilkeson and Ed King, and (right photo, l to r) Dan Peterson (MCA sales), Larry Whalen (MCA sales manager) and Jeff Lyman (MCA promotion).

Jerry Powers Advertising will place radio media and develop local radio promotions for MGM Records' upcoming two-phase marketing campaign on behalf of Jim Stafford and his latest MGM LP, "Not Just Another Pretty Foot."

To emphasize the "Pretty Foot" title, a 3 foot tall inflatable foot has been produced by MGM to hang as mobile. The inflatable foot will be used extensively in the Stafford radio campaign as a tie-in for on-the-air radio promotion giveaways.

First phase of the Stafford campaign will include saturation media campaigns in major markets. The second phase of the promotion will start about two weeks before Jim Stafford's weekly TV series begins in late July and will be directed in the top markets.

The campaign is being coordinated by Powers with Rick Stevens, director of marketing for Polydor/MGM Records and Tina Goldstein of the Polydor/MGM Records media department.

Powers has placed media and developed radio station promotions for Polydor/MGM artists before. The most recent was the pace-setting campaign for the Osmond's last TV special and album product. The Osmond campaign was highlighted by a record breaking number of advance album orders by music dealers throughout the country.

Glenburn Corp. has appointed three new rep organizations, according to Phil Sharaf, director of marketing. California Marketing Associates (CMA) of Long Beach, Ca. (Bill Minkin, principal) will cover southern California, Sonic Sales of Plymouth, Minn. (Jim Brown, principal) will handle Minnesota, North and South Dakota and west Wisconsin, and Debco, Inc., of Nashville, Tenn. (Phil Sigel, principal) will cover Tennessee.

In an innovative move to unite a record company with the community it serves, Casablanca Records has launched the "Chocolate City" campaign under the directorship of Cecil Holmes, vice president-general manager of r&b operations for the Hollywood-based label.

According to Holmes, " 'Chocolate City' is an idea and an ideal, a city and a song, and three dynamite new albums on Casablanca Records."

Sparked by the title track on Parliament's "Chocolate City" album, the town is actually Washington, D.C., and its "Vanilla Suburbs." Yet, it could just as well be any American community where mutual mistrust has been replaced by reason and concord.

" 'Chocolate City' is entertainment, but at the same time, it's a very important record to the total community. It preaches unity and self-survival, music which entertains and educates," Holmes asserts. "Isn't that what it's supposed to be about?"

Cecil Holmes refuses to stop, however, with a rhetorical question. In order to foster involvement with the record-buying public, he has initiated a series of "Chocolate City" contests on a nationwide scale.

Under the auspices of local radio stations, listeners are invited to write an essay or create a visual representation of their personal perception of "Chocolate City." The top three winners receive lavishly designed "Chocolate City" t-shirts and record buying sprees from Casablanca Records.

The contest has already been run on Los Angeles' soulful KGFJ, where the response was so tremendous there were two first place winners — James R. Howard, Jr. and Barbara A. Dashell. Contests have also been set in Phoenix and San Francisco, and at WCHB in Detroit, Philadelphia's WDAS, and WHUR in the "Chocolate City" itself.

Parliament, whose current album sales are rapidly approaching 200,000 copies are not the only residents of "Chocolate City." Also living there are albums by James and Bobby Purify ("You And Me Together Forever") and Greg Perry ("One For The Road"). The Purifys' single, "All The Love I Got," and Perry's single, "Come On Down," are already receiving chart and sales action as well as airplay.

Casablanca and Holmes haven't forgotten the burgeoning disco crowd, either. Although the label does not plan to release a single from the Parliament LP, 100,000 copies of "Chocolate City" title tune have been pressed for jukebox and disco play only. The single, which features the full album version on one side and a tight three-minute edit on the other, is bound to become a collector's item in the near future.

Holmes says he sees the true impact of his remarkable promotion embodied in the kinds of drawings entered in the initial KGFJ contest. "It's been very successful so far," he affirmed. "The contestants' ideas of 'Chocolate City' have ranged from the fantasy-world of a town composed of Hershey Bars and Tootsie Rolls, to militant viewpoints and some very straight-ahead thinking. What we at Casablanca Records have achieved is total community participation, which after all, is what 'Chocolate City' is all about.

With their "Do You Remember Those Days" single getting hot attention across the country, Rockandy (pronounced rock candy) stopped off at K-100 in Los Angeles and presented program director Eric Chase with a "Do You Remember Those Days" t-shirt. Present were (l to r) bottom row: Phil Minardi and Larry Guzy; top row: personal manager Paul Kessler, Jeff Johnson, Marc Boeddeker, Robyn Jordan, Chase and Rockandy co-manager and executive producer, Gil Cabot.

Rare Earth: Black Like Them

"I don't think the sound's gotten blacker. If anything it's gotten whiter."

Gil Bridges' defense of the reconstituted Rare Earth's new musical direction seems satisfactory until you listen to "Back To Earth." No longer does the music of Motown's blue-eyed brothers bring to light hard as nails bump and grinders such as "Get Ready" and "Hey Big Brother." The Earth now conjures up polished visions of Philly and Motown; sounds decidedly a darker shade of black. So where does Bridges get off denying the obvious?

"It's not a matter of labeling the music as black or white. The new material is soulful as opposed to being black. The band's roots have always been in that area and, in that sense, it hasn't changed. It's just that the band is putting their roots to a different use."

The band, by Gil's own admittance, is a superior edition to the Rare Earth of years gone by. What with the likes of Jerry La Croix, Reggie McBride and Gabriel Katona merging with Earth veterans Ed Guzman and Ray Monette; the overall potential of the band is much stronger.

Stronger yes; but the Earth's new sound harkens to a different drummer; the sound of subtlety and intricacy as opposed to the old kick out the jams approach.

"The music we did in the past was music we just played," said Gil. "We really didn't work that hard on it. At a certain point we were more interested in kicking the songs out as hard as possible. We were very much into a physical thing at that time, which is pretty much how we came across on record."

"It's not that the band is getting completely away from that physical kind of thing. The fact that the new album is more mellow and laidback was part of the feeling out process within the group. In the beginning nobody wanted to musically step on anybody's toes. We were just respecting the way each member of the band played. The band is maintaining the power of the old group but is channeling it into new directions."

An overriding theme in the projected new direction for Rare Earth is the vast majority of original songs emanating from the group proper. It is even more surprising when you stop to consider that the band's "top of the heap" status has come largely on the strength of elaborate covers of other people's hits and that when the old band finally got their own creative juices flowing (i.e. "Willie Remembers") the results were much less than hoped for.

Bridges stated the kicking around of ideas within the group has had top priority with the new band's context.

"The fact that there was no preconceived idea of where the new album was going directionwise made it easier for the band to get their own music together. We all had common musical ground in that we all had our roots in black music. We searched for material that all the members of the band got off on. It was the fact that, for the first time, members of the band were getting behind their songwriting that made this album come together."

As has always been the case a percentage of songs came from outside sources but original compositions such as Katona's "Walking Schtick" and La Croix's riveting "Boogie With Me Children" point up the band's in-house writing maturity.

The latest Earth ensemble draws upon a multitude of backgrounds with the countless spheres of influence weaving a crazy quilt patchwork of sounds. Sounds, that, given half a chance, might engulf the Rare Earth identity. Gil disagreed with this premise deferring to the enhancing of the original sound by these new influences.

"If there was any danger of the band losing its identity I think we probably would have changed the name. I think the new material is staying pretty much in the context of the Rare Earth identity. Sure, the material is different but there's that definite Rare Earth sound and feel to it."

As all conversations regarding a band's influences will, the topic returned to the band's universal acceptance by non-white audiences. Let's face it, you're not the first white act signed to Motown for no good reason. Gil was at a loss to explain the band's appeal to black people.

"I really don't know why we've had the rapport with black audiences that we've had. We never consciously went out to try and win over a black audience. The original band grew up around that type of influence. It was the type of music we liked so when we started playing that's the kind of music we played. Initially our music was a success in the rhythm and blues field so consequently black people were the first to pick up on us. White audiences picked up on it after that and so from the outset we were playing pretty much to a mixed audience."

The band's interpretation of material has always been direct. Take a song, measure its strength and how the members of the band relate to it and go from there.

But with "Back To Earth" Rare Earth has ventured onto uncharted seas; a voyage that's liable to leave adherents to the old Rare Earth shipwrecked. Gil seemed fully aware of the pitfalls that could await the band.

"I think our new sound will probably shock people familiar with the old Rare Earth sound. I think we'll probably lose some people but we'll also gain people from an area we never did before."

Gil remarked as to how the band's initial tour would be a combination of the old as well as the new so as to avoid open mouthed audiences hunting for identity but his closing remark served all the more his emphasis on the name being the only thing that's the same about the band.

"It just isn't the old Rare Earth anymore."

Rolling Stones

MADISON SQ. GARDEN, NYC — It was just one of those nights. One of those nights that even the Rolling Stones can have. One of those nights of bad timing and technical snafus which clouded the Stones' first appearance in the city in two years. It was one of those nights that left a good part of the audience dourly gaping at the "World's Greatest Rock And Roll Band" going through the motions of a decidely unspectacular performance. Perhaps the Stones were trying too hard to do something special for their week at the Garden. While promising a unique show for their N.Y. and L.A. performances, it was only during their final twenty minute rock and roll onslaught that the crowd was on their feet. They weren't whipped into a frenzy, but at least everyone finally seemed to be on the same wavelength.

The show which began nearly an hour and a half late finally got underway as the lotus petal stage designed by Broadway set designer Robin Wagner unfurled to reveal Jagger precariously grasping onto one of the petal points. The group slid into a version of "Honky Tonk Woman" while roadies scurried behind them; yanking out plugs, adjusting amplifiers, and balancing microphone volumes. The opening segment of the show, consisting of some of the group's straightforward rock and roll numbers such as "All Down The Line," "If You Don't Love Me," "Get Off My Cloud," "Gimme Shelter," and "Ain't Too Proud To Beg" was strong material-wise, but never approached the onstage verve which usually transforms a Stones show into a historical event.

While the post-Brian Jones Rolling Stones have been meticulous with their sound to the point of sounding clinical at times, the current line-up with "borrowed" musicians Ron Wood, Ollie Brown and Billy Preston generate a grittier approach which was compounded by opening night's sketchy sound mix. While Mick Taylor stood apart as a gentle, lyrical musician, Ron Wood and Keith Richard are bookends — playfully arrogant and infinitely capable of generating a rock steady back beat. They're not subtle, and when playing through a PA which sounds like a six transistor radio, they'll pound a song into submission.

As a result, the songs tended to wash into each other without retaining their distinct qualities. Jagger, whose sheer presence at a microphone can emit a menacing charisma, found it necessary to run through a series of calculated outrages and limp wristed flapping to provide a constant focal point. Musically, there were dead spots which interrupted the orgasmic flow; most notably during an abrasive "You Got To Move," a disjointed "You Can't Always Get What You Want," and a soporific "Midnight Rambler," but they smugly set the controls for the hearts of the audience with a bedazzling finale of "Rip This Joint," "Street Fighting Man," and "Jumping Jack Flash."

For an encore, "Sympathy For The Devil" took on Cecil B. DeMille proportions as a 100-member strong steel band marched out to give an incessant rhythmic boost which completely drowned out the group. Eric Clapton joined them almost unnoticed and played a vicious solo through a curtain of feedback. It was just one of those nights, but it was a Rolling Stones concert and nobody was complaining.

Jerry Jeff Walker And The Lost Gonzo Band

PALOMINO, L.A. — Jerry Jeff stands as an exception to the industry maxim that states an artist ostensibly can't "make it" without a hit single and/or extensive radio airplay. His exposure to present has been by word of mouth and through lyric of song; at least half of the absolutely packed-in audience was familiar enough with his material to provide vocal

Elton John Beach Boys, Eagles, Rufus Joe Walsh, Stackridge

WEMBLEY STADIUM, LONDON — The mid-summer music festival at England's Wembley Stadium featuring Elton John, The Beach Boys, Joe Walsh, Eagles, Rufus and Stackridge delighted a packed house of 72,000 people.

Local favorites Stackridge warmed up the still drifting crowd with their own particular brand of rock and roll.

Rufus, featuring lovely r&b soul lady Chaka Kahn, provided a distinct antithesis from the rest of the bill. Kevin Murphy, Tony Maiden, Bobby Watson and Andre Fischer infused a vibrant background for Ms. Kahn's vocal offerings.

Having appeared once before in England as a member of the James Gang in 1970, Joe Walsh's appearance was eagerly awaited by all. Playing selections from his solo endeavors plus material from his James Gang days, Walsh earned the first encore of the day after an inspiring set.

Late in 1972 the Eagles exploded into the music scene with a stunning debut album. Four LPs later, Glen Frey, Don Henley, Bernie Leadon, Randy Meisner and new member Don Felder presented their wares to an already enthusiastic audience. Their appearance featured a chronological presentation of their career. "Take It Easy," "Witchy Woman," "Peaceful Easy Feelin'," "Desperado," and an unabashed rendition of "Already Gone," among their portion of the.show. The group returned to the stage to do their recent number one single, "The Best Of My Love."

Preceding Elton John were the Beach Boys making their first local performance in three years. The group touched all eras of their existence in the two hour set. Their Wembley appearance hardly varied from their recent U.S. concert tour. From the opening number "Wouldn't It Be Nice" to the closer "Fun Fun Fun," sunshine music was created on stage. The Californians were called back for numerous returns and even more madness was gained when Dennis Wilson dedicated "You Are So Beautiful" to the people of England and sang the Joe Cocker tune accapella. In 1975 Brian Wilson's musical brew still is tasting good.

Yes Ace

HOLLYWOOD BOWL, L.A. — Having previously seen Yes on a number of occasions and as recently as December '74, it is very evident to me that this group refuses to rest on past laurels, but in fact faithfully performs each song with exuberant musical enthusiasm while maintaining an acute awareness of their audience's desires.

December may well have been a critical period in Yes's history. Patrick Moraz had just recently joined the group and assumed all keyboard responsibilities after Rick Wakeman's exit. "Relayer," Yes's most recent LP for Atlantic, was also being showcased before the American public for the first time.

Understandably, concern was in the air. Moraz' ability not only as a musician, but also as a complementary asset to fellow group members Jon Anderson, Steve Howe, Chris Squire, and Alan White, was yet untried. The introduction of "Relayer," while coming off the heels of perhaps their least accepted work ("Tales From Topographic Oceans"), also caused its share of anxious moments. But critical changes were a part

Jim McGuinn Band Jimmy Buffett Band

BOTTOM LINE, NYC — The voice and twelve-string guitar of Columbia recording artist Jim McGuinn have been around since before the beginning of the progressive and country rock years, yet, to see him perform with the vitality and flash that he showed on stage here recently you could think that he was an ambitious newcomer trying hard to get a foot in the door. His present band, especially Richard Bowden on six-string guitar, is skilled, tight and sings exceedingly well. When combined with some of the ex-Byrd's best new tunes, like "Lover Of The Bayou" and "Bulldog," and the best of his old tunes ("Chestnut Mare" got such an ovation that he sang the last choruses again) they pumped out a steady pulsating brand of rock that was clearly in a league with any of the music that the myriad variations of the McGuinn bands over the years have produced.

Opening the evenings festivities was the Jimmy Buffett Band. Playing in the same country rock vein that those that followed them typified, this ABC band sang songs about the road and the California coast, best summed up in the title of their new disk "A1A."

ZZ Top Aerosmith

THE FORUM, L.A. — If you delve deep enough into the backgrounds of most hardrock bands, a stint as the local bar favorite is sure to turn up. Four blaring sets a night where the music's direct competition is alcohol consumption and dissatisfaction with said sound could mean instant mayhem from an inebriated customer.

Based on ZZ Top's performance at the Forum you kind of get the feeling that London's "little old band from Texas" learned their hammer and tongs approach in just such boozey dives.

The band's hard attack relied on a little used concept in the world of metaloid riffs. Rather than trying for abstract distortion of axe runs, the duo of Billy Gibbons and Dusty Hill were as buzzsaws, peeling slab upon slab of sound from their instruments. These further excursions into the gravel depths of rock and roll took on a bludgeoning effect as some loose blues strains went head on with less drastic musical rushes for a series of "grind them out a yard at a time" numbers.

Frank Beard's stead backbeat, which anchored most professionally the band's aggressive tendencies, proved stalwart as the Top moved back to the boogie for an atomic-powered climax.

Los Angeles KLAC hosted the local finals for the Grand Ole Opry talent search at North Hollywood's Palamino Club last June 19; twelve finalists were selected from hundreds of audition tapes sent to the station. A panel of judges selected Larry Settle of the twelve to represent the greater L.A. area in the regional Opry finals which will be held in San Diego on June 28.

Larry currently is a resident of Garden Grove, has been playing for 16 years and performing at local clubs and benefits for the last six, has done session work, and writes the vast majority of his material. Larry will be working with Granite Records' Cliffie Stone, who will produce a single for Larry to be released on the Stone's label.

National finals for the Grand Ole Opry talent search will be held in October at Opryland U.S.A. in Nashville.

Atlantic Records' college promotion department has published a list of brief resumes submitted to them by qualified 1975 college graduates with radio background who are looking for positions in commercial broadcasting. The listings represent 200 aspirants from the U.S. and Canada and have been forwarded to over 2,000 stations by Atlantic's national pop promotion vice president Dick Kline.

Many of the grads have had previous practical experience in different phases of radio. Gunter Hauer and Beth Rosengard from the college promotion department put the listings together, and they report that several grads have been placed in the few weeks the listings have circulated.

The astral airwaves tell me that Bill Hennes has been fired from CKOW's program direction; very recently Bill was handing out awards at the Bobby Poe seminar.

On a whirlwind promotional tour of Los Angeles radio stations equipped with several five-foot wide helium-filled War balloons, United Artists director of album promotion Billy Bass (second from left) and some friends stopped by KMET's studios and was greeted by such radio luminaries as (from left) Joe Collins, KMET music director; KMET radio personality Doyle; James Heathfield, UA Los Angeles promotion man; and KMET program director Shadoe Stevens. Bass shortly thereafter, was stopped by a curious Los Angeles motorcycle patrolman — Bass gave him a copy of UA's extensive promotion kit for the War album.

The Big Kahuna is back on the air in Miami on WIOD, spinning records between 6-9 p.m.

Roby Yonge started his radio life as a weekend man on WQAM in Miami back in '67 while he attended Miami-Dade junior college. After several months he was behind the mike as a full-time jock in the prime early evening slot, which led to a move to WABC in New York City a couple of years later. While at ABC he developed a daily showcase of historic rock and roll (i.e. oldies), quite a new thing in the days of '68-'69.

"From there, it's the classic story of meteoric rise/meteoric plummet; WABC had wanted me to take over for the exiting Cousin Brucie, but Bruce (Morrow) decided to stay and renewed his contract: additionally, they didn't renew my contract," Roby told me over the phone. "From there I purchased a recording studio in New York City, poured quite a bit of money and time into it, lost my wife because my business left us no time for each other. Eventually I also had to sell the studio, barely breaking even."

Roby headed back to Florida and was hired by a West Palm Beach station as a progressive AM disk jockey, but the station turned out to be rather conservative. "They called me a communist because I played 'Roundabout' by Yes and subsequently fired me," Roby explained. "After that, I was a sailing instructor and worked on commercials; last year I really bottomed out.

"WIOD is a nice place to be; I'm really enjoying cueing up records again. The playlist here totals about 50 songs which allows us to expose a lot of new material."

Yonge's future looks a little brighter than it has in the last couple of years; his resiliency lends credence to the faded and patched saying "you can't keep a good man down."

George Klein (WHBQ-Memphis) is pictured above with his basketball team, which he calls his "Q-ties." George reports that the young ladies were undefeated this year both on and off the court. Actually, the girls played games for charities throughout Memphis and the midsouth.

Bill Haywood tells us that his new discotheque series titled "The Electro-Disco" will begin 13-week runs in approximately 25 markets by the end of June. WOL's Bobby Bennett, the top 1974 Gavin r&b disk jockey, will be the featured voice. "Electro-Disco" broadcasts are individually three hours long, and there will be special features involving participatory stations forming what hopefully will be a nationwide disco network.

The series comes equipped with custom I.D.'s and promos for each participating market and also has its own set of jingles. According to Haywood, the series is offered to stations without charge. Contact Bill at 1629 K St. N.W., suite 701, Washington, D.C. or by phone at (202) 785-0275 for additional information.

Jack Alexander dropped by my office last week to deliver a copy of his new record tip sheet "Input." Jack draws on his extensive experience in radio to preview new product and makes gut-level but educated projections of a given record's future airplay and sales potential. He also includes a top 25 singles list which is derived from southern California sales and requests as well as radio surveys nationwide. "Input" is aimed specifically at music and program directors; Jack can be reached at 1190 E. Ball Road. in Anaheim, Ca. 92805 or by phone at (714) 776-1191 for, if you'll pardon the expression, further input.

Johnny Darren will take over KNAC-FM (Long Beach) program directorship effective July 7 and will continue the free-form "format" initiated there by Ron McCoy, who is safe and sound near Dallas despite having his trailer there cleaned out by nefarious criminal types last week.

The International MusExpo takes place Sept. 21-24 in Las Vegas. East coasters wishing to plug in should contact Roddy Shashoua in New York at (212) 489-9245; Don Whittemore is the west coast rep and can be reached at (213) OK-RADAR here in Los Angeles.

ARB Rates WMAQ #1 Country

CHICAGO — The April-May 1975 ARB Radio Report for Chicago, the first to cover fully WMAQ radio's new country music format, shows the NBC-owned station with a weekly cume (the number of different people 12 years and older who listen to a station at any time during a week) of 1.9 million persons. this makes WMAQ radio the largest country music station in America, after going country only five months ago.

The 1.9 million cume puts WMAQ in with a small if select group of radio stations reaching huge audiences: among them are WABC, WCBS, WOR, WINS and WNBC in New York; WLS, WGN and WMAQ in Chicago.

In the Chicago ARB report for April-May, based on adults 18 and over in the total survey area, WMAQ ranks second, third or fourth in every weekday time period in both cume and average quarter-hour audiences.

In commenting on the progress made by WMAQ radio in such a short time, Jack Thayer, president of the NBC radio division, said, "Two strong facts emerge from this dynamic advance by WMAQ. First, as our research and planning indicated, country music is the fastest-growing musical form among adults, particularly young adults. When it was combined with award-winning WMAQ radio and NBC news and service features, the audience response was quick and enormous. Secondly, the staff and on-air personalities at WMAQ radio, under the direction of general manager Charlie Warner, has made a tremendous effort in all areas to have that opportunity materialize."

Warner recalled his promise back in December that "our goal is to make WMAQ radio one of the great country music stations in the United States" with the deep satisfaction that this lofty goal was reached in the very first definitive Arbitron report.

Show Biz To Create New Video Syndie

NASHVILLE — Show Biz, Inc. today unveiled plans for production of a new half-hour syndicated television series titled "Nashville On The Road." Set for a September debut, the series co-stars Jerry Clower, who has broken all existing records with the sale of over six million comedy albums during the past two years, and Jim Ed Brown, one of Nashville's most popular singers.

Both artists are represented by Top Billing, which is acting as talent packager for "Nashville On The Road." Now in pre-production, the series will begin actual taping in July. A remote taping unit from Opryland Productions will follow Clower and Brown and their big name country music guests as they take their Nashville sound to locations throughout the United States. The first shows of the 52-week series will be produced before a live audience in Atlanta.

In announcing plans for "Nashville On The Road," Reg Dunlap, executive vice president of Show Biz, pointed out that the deal with Top Billing marks the first time any talent booking agency has been used as a talent packager. "We are enthusiastic about top Billing's ability to deliver a super star package each week. Tandy Rice, who was sales manager at Show Biz before purchasing Top Billing several years ago, understands our needs and he'll be furnishing the best of his own entertainers as well as major acts from other agencies."

Echoing Dunlap's enthusiasm Rice said "All of us at Top Billing are tremendously excited at the prospect of handling talent for a show headed by such great stars as Jim Ed Brown and Jerry Clower. This is going to be the first time a Show Biz TV production has gone on the road and it should be a fantastic syndie."

Show Biz produces nine television programs each week including Ralph Emery's "Pop! Goes the Country" and "The Porter Wagoner Show."

Chess/Janus Moves To L.A. Ed DeJoy New Label Chief

HOLLYWOOD — Chess/Janus Records has announced the relocation of its offices from New York to Los Angeles. Ed DeJoy, who was formerly both national promotion director and head of west coast productions, has been promoted to Chess/Janus vice president and general manager, replacing Marvin Schlachter who resigned as head of both labels.

Allan Mason, formerly director of artist development, has been promoted to vice president of A&M. DeJoy will report directly to GRT's executive vice president Tom Bonetti.

GRT Music Tapes will assume the sales and accounting function of Chess/-Janus Records but will not change their basic record distribution policy. Chess/-Janus will continue exclusive distribution arrangement with independent record wholesalers and GRT Music Tapes will continue to market all tape lines on a non-exclusive basis.

GRT acquired the Chess label from Leonard and Phil Chess in 1968. Janus records was formed as a joint venture with PYE Records of England a year later. In 1971, GRT purchased PYE's interest in Janus and consolidated both Chess and Janus into one company. Chess/Janus will continue to distribute Barnaby Records owned by singer Andy Williams, BTM owned by British Talent Management and certain Westbound Records LPs by Ohio Players and Funkadelic, in addition to the artists under contract to the Chess and Janus labels.

DeJoy and Mason plan an "open door" a&r policy and can be contacted at 8776 Sunset Blvd. in Los Angeles (213) 659-6444.

WGMS AM/FM Sets History Of American Music

HOLLYWOOD — WGMS, Washington's fine arts station, has been developing a major project for the bicentennial. Utilizing some of the outstanding music scholars in the nation's capital and the full resources of one of the country's major collections of concert music, WGMS will present a 14-part history of American music. The history of classical music in the United States will be only a part of this major series. American music from rock to Fred Astaire and Nelson Eddy, from Bernstein to Bacharach will be the focus for this bicentennial feature. Beginning with the pre-colonial heritage from Europe, each program will discuss and highlight a different topic of American music. The listener will be amazed to realize how closely knit our classical and popular traditions are and these similarities will be the main unifying factors in this cavalcade of song and symphony. Briefly, a synopsis of the program's fourteen segments:

"The Fertile Ground" segment deals with the musical influences transported from Europe during the Colonial period, and how they nurtured the seeds of post-Colonial music; "Emerging Identity" outlines the emergence of definite beginnings of indigenous musical forms through the Civil War period; "Fife, Drum & Bugle" looks at the manifestations of socio-political stress and war in American music via study of martial music — including war and religious dances of native American Indians. "The Sacred & The Profane" describes the split between developing home-grown popular forms (for instance, ragtime) and the more classical American composers, who essentially were trained in Europe. "Sing, Sing, Sing" investigates the evolution of American vocal styles. "The Age Of Electricity" discusses the huge impact electronics has had, from radio at its earliest to present-day recordings and production. "Sousa To Fennell" traces the development of the American school bands and the traditions behind marching pageants and competitions as well as woodwind solo and ensemble activities. "The Continent Expands" details the significance of the American West in music from cowboys to waves. "Music Of The American City" sets its focus on the direct expression of city feelings through the work of Darius Milhaud, Charlie Parker and Frank Loesser ("Chicago"), to mention a few. "And They Shall Be Led" follows the evolution of American symphonic conductors, a fairly recent development. "The Melting Pot" traces the influences of America's later arrivals through all phases of music. "On Stage" investigates American musical theater from the uniqueness of Broadway to the development of our own operatic traditions, from Gershwin to "Tommy." "Tapping Toes" spotlights the dynamics of music for dancing, from the classical ballet to contemporary modes of dance. And "The Great Rebels" discusses the artists in American music who rejected the commonplace and developed new ways of expression which in turn influenced all aspects of American music.

Pick-A-Hit Records Formed

HOLLYWOOD — A new record company has been formed on the west coast — Pick-A-Hit Records, a division of SRG International Motion Pictures. Pick-A-Hit Records will be distributed on a nationwide basis by SIPRA (Small Independent Production and Record Associates).

Pick-A-Hit's first release will be a group called French Coffey consisting of three ladies, winners of the International Talent Show for 1975. The first release on this group is entitled "Nothing From Nothing" and "Something From Nothing Is Everything."

President of Pick-A-Hit Records, Bobby Sanders says he is opening up the doors for small producers and production companies, that they may have the opportunity to be heard nationally, as well as internationally.

Lieberman Named R&C W/C Head

HOLLYWOOD — Frank H. Lieberman has been named west coast publicity manager of Rogers & Cowan's contemporary music division, it was announced today by Paul Bloch, senior vice-president in charge of the contemporary music department.

Additionally, Bloch said Mae Boren Axton, recently named to head R&C's new Nashville office, will be coming to Los Angeles for meetings to discuss additional expansion of the firm's music operation in Nashville.

Prior to joining R&C, Lieberman most recently was publicity and advertising director of the Las Vegas Tropicana Hotel and previously was a critic/feature writer for the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner and sportswriter for the Long Beach Independent Press-Telegram.

Foreign Deals Made For B. Martin Tune

NEW YORK — Two foreign rights deals have been made for Bobbi Martin's Green Menu label release, "Man Was Made To Love Woman." The foreign distribution division of London Records, Inc. has acquired the disk for release by the Decca Record Co., Ltd. in the U.K., Eire, Scandinavia, Germany and Austria. In addition, Barclay Records has obtained the rights for France, Switzerland, and the Benelux countries.

TOGETHER AGAIN — ABC Recods/Blue Thumb recording artists The Pointer Sisters, Ruth, Bonnie, Anita and June took time during their recent appearances at Disneyland to visit Cash Box publisher George Albert, and to present him with a copy of their new LP for the label, entitled "Steppin'." The occasion marked the first time the Pointers and George had been together since the MIDEM meetings in January.

Marquis Sets New Ventures

NEW YORK — Marquis Enterprises, the concert production firm, has disclosed plans for several avenues of expansion in the upcoming months. First, the company has contracted with the Chicago Park District to book (in a co-production deal with Star Trek Productions) the concerts in Soldiers Field this summer. Secondly, Marquis has recently confirmed a long-term booking arrangement at Radio City Music Hall which will include at least 26 weeks worth of concert attractions. In addition, the "Florida Jam" to be held on July 5 at the Tampa Fairgrounds, and featuring Z.Z. Top, Johnny Winter and War, is also a Marquis event. Several other large-scale concerts are also planned for this summer.

To help in its efforts in the contemporary market, Lawrence Crane, founder and former president of Dynamic House/Tele House — the TV mail order business, has joined Marquis. He will be headquartered in New York and will coordinate the Radio City concerts.

Marquis Enterprises, incorporated on June 1, 1972, is a venture of Donjo Mendlevine with Jerry Kaufman and Joe Borenstein. Mendlevine is the former organizer of talent for Chicago's Chez Paree from the forties to 1960, and his other projects have included the Suburban Theatre in Niles, Ill., the Circle Star Theatre in San Carlos, Calif., and early use of the revolving stage. A new venue, the Nanuet Theatre-In-The-Round in Nanuet, N.Y., and the Mill Run program for school children, which allows pupils in the Chicago area to attend special performances in the Chicago area, are two other recent Marquis ventures.

Fusion Inks 2 New Acts

NEW YORK — Fusion Musical Productions, the firm whose chief producer and head is Michal Urbaniak, has signed two new acts to their roster. The first is Urbaniak's wife and lead vocalist Urszula Dudziak, who is a solo artist as well as a member of her husband's group, Fusion. She has a solo LP release on Columbia and a second will be produced by Urbaniak.

Also inked by Fusion is a vocal group led by arranger/composer Bernard Kafka. For six years Kafka was leader of the Novi Singers. He also did the vocal arrangements for the recent Fusion LP "Funk Factory" on Atlantic.

Capitol Suit fr 7

"Live" album consisting of songs all of which the group had already recorded for Capitol at least once and had released once, twice, or even three times in earlier Capitol albums.

In its lawsuit, which was instituted against both Grand Funk and MCA Records on June 13, 1975, Capitol maintains that it has the right to suspend the term of its contract with Grand Funk until Grand Funk fulfills its obligation to deliver two LPs of new material: that is, musical compositions not previously recorded for Capitol. Capitol contends that Grand Funk is now hoarding its new musical compositions in order to be ready to record them for MCA when Capitol's contract expires, a practice which further demonstrates that the group is not acting in good faith. Capitol further alleges in its complaint that MCA is conspiring with Grand Funk to cause injury to Capitol by withholding new material that is rightfully Capitol's. By delivering old material instead of new, the group would render relatively worthless Capitol's right to issue a "pick up" album after the term ends. The value of such a "pick up" was a significant financial ingredient in Capitol's decision to enter into the 1972 contract.

Commenting on the lawsuit, Bhaskar Menon, Capitol's president & chief executive officer, stated: "It is illogical to think that Capitol would advance an average of $500,000 per album for anything less than brand-new material. And, indeed, proof of the parties' intentions in this regard is demonstrated by the fact that Grand Funk has, in the first two years of our agreement, delivered four albums, each consisting solely of new material. Capitol would surely not advance $1,000,000 a year for the privilege of obtaining additional recordings of the same songs over and over again. Such was never the intention of the parties, and it is most distressing to find that the group, aided and abetted by MCA, is now attempting to satisfy its contractual obligations in this shabby way."

Janis Ian/John Shine fr 14

herent in her audiences that she remains the stereotypical "folk singer in a long dress and flowing hair" (her words) Janis extends the formidable musical growth she has gained through introspection and good old hard work and exhibits a controlled, sensitive on-stage personna

Also appearing on the Boarding House bill was Columbia artist John Shine, whose reputation as a performer in the bay area fully justifies his breaking out in a big way through his current "Song For A Rainy Day" LP and single. John is no mean folk singer. Rather, he created on stage this evening a foppish, somewhat comical self-parody that works well within the context of his material — songs that are constructed well both musically and lyrically. Particularly effusive was John's flutist/pianist/violinist, Brian Price, whose talents with a bow deserve laudation and compliment here — he is an accomplished young man! John, whose most recent album for the label was produced by Pointer Sisters' manager David Rubinson (John wrote "Old Songs" for the Pointers, and performs it with gusto on stage), created an atmosphere of friendly relaxation, a feat impossible for many opening artists — material in his set of particular note included "She's Lookin' Better (Every Beer)" — a hilarious country-western number that could easily be a hit, "Old Friends," a denunciation of past acquaintances, and the lovely "Nobody Knows Me Like You Do."

Musso Enters Management

HOLLYWOOD — Johnny Musso has entered into the personal management field, with his own operation, Moose Management, headquartered at 8913 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles. Simultaneously, Musso has announced his firm's acquisition of veteran artist Dobie Gray and El Chicano, group now in their fifth year with MCA Records.

Musso was previously with MCA Records for five and a half years, where he served as vice president/a&r. He joined the company in 1970 to head its Kapp Records and was later upped to vice president/a&r. While at MCA, Musso was instrumental in bringing Sonny & Cher to the label, both as a duo and Cher as a solo artist.

Musso's background also includes an association with Atlantic Records, where he served as west coast general manager from 1968-70. Earlier in his career, Musso worked as a promotion man for a number of major record labels.

Yes/Ace cont. fr 14

of December.

Last Saturday night's appearance at the Bowl not only dispelled any concern there may have been about Yes'sdurability, but also convincingly displayed the superb musical talents and overall concert finesse that have made them one of rock's finest live-performance groups in the land.

Audience stamina to digest all of the Yes complexities is probably their hardest task, but each song brought them arousing applauds of admiration and screams for more. Whether it was 'shorter' numbers like "And You And I," and "Sound Chaser," or epic pieces like "Close To The Edge," and "Gates Of Delirium," Yes executed them all with an exacting flair and vibrance that most typically is felt during a band's encore. The most interesting segment of the show was a collage of older tunes that more specifically geared itself to individual solos. Beginning with "Your Move," Howe then rendered two of his most acclaimed acoustic guitar instrumentals, "Moods For A Day," and "The Clap." Attention was then diverted back to the keyboards while Moraz gave a dazzling improvisation at the piano. The crowd's favorite was saved for last and Yes's now standard "Roundabout" encore was followed by "Sweet Dreams," a tune from their second album, "Time And A Word."

The seemingly three dimensional stage setting with various lighting subtleties was similar to and as aesthetically appealing as the Roger Dean art work that has now become a trademark on their album covers. Together with the group's ever changing complex rhythms, swirling textures of sound, and rich vocal harmonies, Yes completely captured the audience by their senses soaring them to higher and higher realms of musical imagery and fulfilling enjoyment.

Proving an able show opener Ace (a strong link in the Anchor chain) laid down a tight series of rock and blues numbers. The years spent on the grueling English pub circuit have served this band well as the elements of improvisation within an economic framework allowed the band to get the most out of each song. Ace showed some decidedly American roots as the band's structuring of material, in particular "How Long," carried influences not dissimilar to Steely Dan and the Doobies. But Ace's overall presentation this night was easily their own.

SRP/BBC Pact fr 8

of picking SRP selections from the BBC catalog for export to the U.S. will be handled by Emison, the Broadcast Programmes Company of EMI. The first of the recordings will be delivered to SRP on July 15, and the 70 SRP clients will begin broadcasting the initial tapes in August.

Schulke noted that the BBC selections will be integrated with the SRP "matched flow" sound, and that over ⅓ of SRP programming could be BBC material by the time the 2-year pact is up for renewal. Citing the decline in available "beautiful music" material in recent years, he stated that the BBC contract will significantly increase the quantity of product such that SRP will have "about three times as much product as is currently being made available by all other sources combined." In Great Britain, 120 musicians are employed full time recording music especially for the BBC, providing 12 hours of music each week. Through the new agreement, Schulke also reported that covers of rock hits could be produced faster, adding "the contemporary sound we need for younger demographics."

In a related development, radio station WWSH-FM, an SRP subscriber, has been reported by Arbitron Radio as the highest-ranked station in Philadelphia for the April/May survey. According to WWSH general manager James E. Conner, this is the first time an FM station has ranked #1 in a top 5 market. In addition, Boston's SRP-affiliated WJIB also ranks in the top spot for persons 12+. SRP's Phil Stout commented that he felt that "fragmentation of the rock audience" among several stations was at least a partial explanation for the success of SRP's outlets.

Stereo Radio Productions is a company specializing in what has been termed "beautiful music" programming, and it provides both taped music and format consultation. All SRP clients are stereo FM stations, 35% of which are "live" on the air, and 65% of which are automated.

Citing London as the "beautiful music capital of the world," Stout noted that all of the BBC material is recorded directly onto tape for "pure" sound, and that none of the product will be available on record. In licensing the music from the BBC, SRP has been accorded all rights and protections from copyright infringement. In additon, SRP is in a position to suggest special arrangements to be recorded by the BBC orchestras — arrangements of contemporary hits as well as standards and show and film music.

Elton John fr 14

The scene was now set for Elton John to debut his new group and give an unprecedented unveiling of his latest vinyl excursion "Captain Fantastic And The Brown Dirt Cowboy."

Without fanfare a modest Elton walked on stage, waved to the massive crowd and over the next two and one half hours established his new band's musical identity. The latest Elton John incarnation moves him back into rock and roll land, and in the process he convinced everyone present that his new lineup is his best to date.

Opening with a sizzling version of "Love Lies Bleeding," Elton again showed his growth as an individual and as a performer with a stellar display of his musical repertoire of the last half decade. The mad man at the piano pounded out new and old Elton John/Bernie Taupin songs. "Rocket Man," "Candle In The Wind," "The Bitch Is Back," "Philadelphia Freedom," and "Benny And The Jets," were offered in the opening hour. Homage to Lennon/McCartney followed, "Lucy In The Sky," and "I Saw Her Standing There," paving the way for the new E.J. masterpiece.

Ray Cooper, and Davey Johnstone holdovers from the last unit, along with Roger Pope, Caleb Quaye and Kenny Passarelli, previously with Joe Walsh form the nucleus of the band, who for the gig were joined by Jeff Baxter of the Doobie Brothers. The sound was further embellished by background vocalists and a keyboardist. Elton presented each tune with a guiding narrative of his most autobiographical work to date. The songs were audible paintings of a man whose verbal presentation added animation to the lyrical and musical coloring.

Having passed the audition, Elton left to thundering applause and encored with "Pinball Wizard." The crowd cried out for even more and Elton again returned to the stage for a furious sing along of "Saturday Night's All Right For Fighting." Well done Reggie.

ZZ Top fr 14

I've heard people talk of a rock and roll purgatory where the masters of the power chords will do four sets a night throughout eternity. Well, if ZZ Top is hell then we're all going to go.

Opening the show was Columbia's answer to how fast can you run amuck; Aerosmith. Aerosmith proved enthusiasm unchained as they combined the less disciplined aspects of Led Zeppelin with a steady stream of riff-infested rockers that were as mana from heaven to the Forum crowd.

m.s.

Les McCann, Eddie Harris fr 14

largeness though the club still maintains a fine sense of intimacy lacking in many L.A. clubs.

Les came on first and immediately got things moving with his nimble fingers rambling along on his many keyboards. Les's group seemed more relaxed and in the groove than the last time they were in town at the AWB concert.

Featuring material from his latest release on Atlantic "In The Beginning," Les's music is loose, casual and very rhythmic. There is a subtle eloquence to his sound because even though the audience was sitting there in the third dimension, Les's music conveyed feelings and attitudes reaching a higher plane of the fourth and fifth dimension. Much of Les' success as a performer is in his ability to control the power and vibes in the room either by bringing the crowd way up to participate along with him or by playing his jazz so easily to let the audience tune in and be laid back while listening.

Eddie Harris did a quite unusual set in that he started off by playing the piano alone, with his band coming in minutes later. Eddie played his keyboard instruments more this evening but when he did play his tenor, it was lush, vibrant and very together. Eddie's group was with it and tight all evening with Calvin Barnes' performance outstanding, on his many assorted percussion instruments. Especially effective was Calvin's bit with his talking African drums. Being the last show of the engagement, Eddie's set emphasized romantic, cool and relaxing numbers. The tempo of the show was not to play at the audience but to let the tunes seep in and let the music explore the audience's minds.

POINTS WEST — Ozark Mountain Daredevils manager Stan Plesser, who also manages Brewer & Shipley out of his Cowtown Productions offices in Kansas City, was in town on business last week and got together to rap about what the A&M Ozark-ers are up to. Seems as though the band, whose single "Jackie Blue" went to #1 on the Cash Box charts, are in Nashville recording what Stan refers to as being a "very successful album." A&M plans release of a single in two weeks, with the LP due around the first of September. Brewer & Shipley, on the other hand, have a new 45 out called "Brain Damage." I guess that's somehow related to their previous hit "One Toke Over The Line!" Anyway, good to see Stan in town — managers of his sincerity and ability don't grow on trees. And the Daredevils have a lot of songs in the works — sounds perfect.

Apologies Up Front — Did I really forget to thank Alice Cooper's Shep Gordon and the Alive organization specifically in last week's column? Shep — I love you! And, as I explained, Alice's bash was one of the greatest in recent memory. Can't wait for the next tour! Many thanks are also due this week to my colleague Harvey Kubernik, writer for Britain's Melody Maker Magazine, for having been our eyes and ears this past weekend (June 21) for Elton John's Wembley Stadium gig with Joe Walsh, the Beach Boys, Eagles, Rufus and Stackridge. Now that Elton's formally introduced his new ensemble (sans permanent Doobie Brothers guitarist Jeff Baxter) we can only assume the next major news from the Rocket-MCA artist will be regarding his upcoming rumored Southern California dates. Tune in next week: will Elton play Anaheim, the Forum, and the Troubadour? Or will he merely wait for the football season to start so he can do a concert at the 100,000 seat L.A. Memorial Coliseum with The Rams? Not a bad venue! . . .

John Desko,who does (or is that did?) bookings for Doug Weston's Troubadour, gave us the quote of the week: "As Mark Twain once said, 'My death has been greatly exaggerated!' " Says John: "No matter what Doug says, I still love him." John will be going out on the road, "riding point" with Greg Allman shortly. Good to hear you're "Still Alive And Well," John! . . . Good news for the "Reborn" James Gang — the group has just been added to the second half of the Alice Cooper tour, replacing Suzi Quatro, whose departure midway in the tour leaves some unanswered questions. . . . And speaking of Alice, this guy is a dedicated showman — after falling off the "Toy Box" set during his Vancouver performance, suffering a cut to the head which required twelve stitches, and further cracking six ribs, our Billion Dollar Baby summoned the courage and "chutzpah" to continue the show to its completion. . . . Get well soon, Alice — you're too much! . . . At Freddie King's last Starwood performance on Saturday nite (June 21) Joe Cocker and Bad Company jammed with the blues guitarist to the delight of the sold-out house. . . . This week in Aspen, Colorado, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band producer Bill McKuen debuted the new United Artists LP "Dream" — (that's as in "All I Have To Do Is Dream") at his newly opened Aspen Recording Society Studio. The LP, preceded by the stunning single, is due for release in mid-July, featuring Linda Ronstadt dueting with Jimmy Ibbotson on Hank Williams' classic "Hey Good Lookin'." . . . Dee Murray, bassist extraordinare, has now moved to L.A., after having spent five incredible years with Elton. Dee plans to be involved with numerous sessions here in town — that is until his wife delivers their first child, sometime soon, which might keep him up nights at home instead of the studio! . . . George Carlin, Clifton Davis and Lola Falana have been set by producer Bob Henry for guest appearances on the third taping of the Gladys Knight and The Pips summer series, which airs July 24. . . .Carmen Mac Rae is the first recording artist to record a number from Billy Goldenberg and Marilyn and Alan Bergman's Emmy-winning score from "Queen Of The Stardust Ballroom." Carmen will sing "How Could You Do This To Me" on her upcoming Blue Note LP. . . . The Temptations have been inked to return to Universal's Amphitheatre, July 17-19; also added are Cheech and Chong, for Sept. 8-9. . . . Linda Ronstadt had added one date to her Amphitheatre schedule, now to appear July 29-Aug. 1. . . . Bobby Vee has been signed to an exclusive world-wide recording pact with Sutton-Miller Ltd., with his initial single, "(I'm) Lovin' You," b/w "Sayin' Goodbye" having been shipped this past week. . . . Private Stock recording artist Tom Paxton will appear for three days at the Pitschel Players club in West Hollywood, Friday, June 27 through Sunday, June 29. . . . Robert Goulet has opened a six-week engagement at the Frontier Hotel, Las Vegas. . . . Henry Mancini has been inked by producer Jay Weston to score Universal's "W.C. And Me," starring Rod Steiger and Valerie Perrine. . . . Burt Sugarman and Jeff Wald couldn't be happier now that Helen Reddy has taken over as permanent hostess of Burt's "Midnight Special." What a lovely way to greet those early morning hours!

WHO'S DOING WHAT WITH WHOM — At Wally Heider's Studio in San Francisco, Bobby Womack recording, with David Rubinson producing and Fred Catero engineering. . . . Hot Tuna doing a quad mix of their new LP, with Mallory Earl at the knobs. . . . John Fogerty in the studio mixing his new album, David Coffin engineering. . . . Lenny Williams mixing his new Motown LP. . . . Producer Norman Ratner recording tracks with Straight at Minneapolis' Sound 80 Studios. . . . Columbia recording artists Cecilio and Kapono were at Mama Jo's Studios in North Hollywood doing overdubs on their next LP with David Kirshenbaum producing, and Rick Ruggieri at the controls. Also at Mama's were Jack Daugherty producing another "Big Band LP with Billy Taylor engineering, and 20th Century's Ambrosia is rehearsing new material for their upcoming LP. . . .Polydor Records' artists Crackin' played host to Sly and members of The Family Stone, Buddy Miles and Lenny White of the Chick Corea Band during their sessions at Sausalito's Record Plant. The LP is set for a mid-July release. Until next week, au revoir, people!

John Bauer Concert Co. of Bellevue, Washington, in its first season of operation, has set a minimum of 10 major shows in June and July, headlining the Rolling Stones, yes, Jethro Tull, Jeff Beck and Stephen Stills. Bauer's firm is specializing in concerts in Seattle, Portland, Vancouver and Honolulu. He is assisted by John Morrison and Ivy Liberti Bauer . . . The L.A. Cerebral Palsy telethon on KTTV, Ch. 11 on June 14-15 raised $361,110 due to the musical efforts of Robert Goulet, Paul Anka, The Fifth Dimension, Conny Van Dyke, Bo Donaldson and The Heywoods, Carol Lawrence, Diana Trask, Roy Clark, Anson Williams, and many others. Frank Sinatra made a rare TV appearance and gifted the Cerebral Palsy Foundation with $10,000. You folks all got class . . . Dr. Hook and the Medicine Show's week long romp at the Starwood last week carried with it all the trappings of a three-ring circus. The show consisted of the Hook's particular brand of absurdist and roll. After opening night party shennanigans consited of pie in the eye (literally) and other assorted goings on. On hand for the opening night insanity were Cash Box's heavymetal advocate Marc Shapiro and his lady plus country editor Stephen Peeples who partook of the festivities and quantities of Kahlua and cream.

EAST COASTINGS — About the best news we've heard all week is that Peter K. Siegel has acquired the first Monty Python album for U.S. release on ATV/Pye Records. The album, "The Worst Of Monty Python's Flying Circus" was originally released in 1970 on the BBC label in England. The LP was never released in the U.S., though it contains their most popular comedy sketches, many of which have recently been run on the NET-TV series. "The Worst Of Monty Python" answers such vital questions as, "What is brown and sounds like a bell?" and introduces such memorable personalities as the man who puts bricks to sleep by hypnosis. The album will be available in two weeks.

BITS & PIECES: It is interesting to note that the English version of the Rolling Stones' "Metamorphosis" album contains two more tracks than its American counterpart. The two tracks not on the American version are: "Some Things Just Stick In Your Mind" and "We're Just Wasting Time.". . . The impression was given here two weeks ago that Bill Connors had re-joined Chick Corea's Return To Forever. He is not with the group, but has just recorded an LP of solo guitar work for ECM which should be released in this country sometime soon. Lenny White, and Al DiMeola of RTF have also just cut their first solo albums which should be released this fall . . . It seems that Eric Clapton's live album has been shelved indefinitely, though one track, the unreleased live version of "Smile" can be heard on a sampler released by RSO in London titled "Prime Cuts.". . . The first album on the Kasenetz & Katz Magna Glide label will be by the group, Canyon. They were in town last week at the K&K studio in Long Island adding the finishing touches . . . Motown's Abe Hoch was a man about town last week, making sure that everything was in order for Smokey Robinson's debut solo performance last Thursday at Carnegie Hall.

For those who are statistically minded, it might be interesting to note that Andy Kim's "Sugar Sugar" recorded for the Archies TV series has surpassed the ten million mark . . . And, Bette Midler's "Clams On The Half Shell Revue" which just finished a ten week run on Broadway grossed $1,700,000 for the engagement, breaking Broadway's record for any ten week run.

Carl Perkins has written and recorded a tribute to Elvis Presley entitled, "E.P. Express." The song is made up entirely of titles of Elvis' hits and recorded in the rockabilly style that both Elvis and Carl made famous on their early Sun recordings. On the session with Perkins were two members of Elvis' original band, Scotty Moore and D.J. Fontana . . . The art of rock photography will be the subject on Cable Television's "Creating With Alan Corby" show on July 8 and 15 at 9:00. ELTON JOHN (MCA 40421)
Someone Save My Life Tonight (6:45) (Big Pig/Leeds/ASCAP — E. John, B. Taupin)
Captain Fantastic releases the anxiously-awaited first single from his #1 platinum LP, and it's really a "sugar bear" of a record! Butterflies are free to fly, and this latest single offering from Elton should fly straight to a number one top 100 perch. Tschaikovsky would feel proud about Elton's punctuated chords — those high harmonies are perfect for summertime — thank God Elton's music's still alive! An overwhelming, obvious add. Flip: No info. available.

THE BEACH BOYS (Capitol P-4110)
Barbara Ann (2:11) (Shoestring/Cousins/BMI — F. Fassert)
This record is b-b-b-beautiful! Recorded live some years ago at one of the Beach Boys' now famous livingroom session-parties, "Barbara Ann" has aged a bit, but still looks terrific, all sun-tanned and ready to hit the waves. A super summer choice for upcoming weeks. Catch this one and ride it all the way in. Flip: No info. available.

THE MAIN INGREDIENT (RCA JH 10334)
The Good Old Days (3:58) (J.L.P./Jasmine/ASCAP — L. Perry)
Piano tracks, string tracks, horns that sizzle, and a spoken vocal track over a fine orchestral mix make up the intro to this — and it breaks into a melodic bag that can't help but hit. Fine backup vocals here, too and a danceable rhythm should make it happen. Flip: No info. available.

STEPHEN STILLS (Columbia 3-10179)
Turn Back The Pages (4:05) (Gold Hill/Donnie Dacus/ASCAP — S. Stills, D. Dacus)

Joe Lala on percussion, Marcie Levy sweetening it up with a fine voice. Should be a hot addition to any playlist in town.Flip: No info. available.

BLACK OAK ARKANSAS (Atco ST 30591)
Back Door Man (2:50) (Far Fetched/ASCAP — Black Oak Arkansas)

Sidewalk Surfin' (2:34) (Irving/BMI — B. Wilson, R. Christian)

pop picks

GOOD VIBRATIONS — The Beach Boys — Warner Bros. MS 2223 — Producers: Beach Boys and Brian Wilson — List: 6.98

Beach Boys music is good any time of the year but proves especially infectious during the summer months when sun, sand and surf weave a lyrical spell around their music. And so right on schedule for the hot months ahead is "Good Vibrations"; a tasty blast from the Beach Boys recent past that has only gotten better with age. The likes of "Good Vibrations," "Wouldn't It Be Nice" and "Surf's Up" still hold that vision of a fresh bikini on a wild island day. "Good Vibrations"; you can almost hear the surf laping against your turntable.

CAT STEVENS GREATEST HITS — A&M SP-4519 — Producers: Cat Stevens and Paul Samwell Smith — List: 6.98

Some of the most memorable songs of recent vintage have come off the talents of Cat Stevens. His sense of majesty coupled with his uncanny lyric and musical arrangings have turned much of his material into multi-dimensional classics. And this package is indeed Cat Steven's greatest from the quiet refrains of "Morning Has Broken" — to the raucous overflow of "Another Saturday Night" and "Can't Keep It In," you know you're hearing the best from one of the best. "Cat Stevens Greatest Hits" are a musical bargain at any price.

TONY ORLANDO AND DAWN'S GREATEST HITS — Arista AL-4045 — Producers: Hank Medress and Dave Appell — List: 6.98

Overlooked in their climb to the top has been Tony Orlando and Dawn's ability to combine the best aspects of many musical fields in their music. If you listen close enough the intermingling patterns of pop, easy listening, honkytonk and even a bit of country make their presence felt. This greatest hits package goes beyond being a retrospective of a group's radio hits. It is also a primer for those seeking the results of being musically open to any and all ideas. A good example of being musically together at all times.

IT'S MY PLEASURE — Billy Preston — A&M SP 4532 — Producers: Billy Preston, Malcom Cecil and Robert Margouleff — List: 6.98

As has always been the case with Billy Preston's music, keyboards, piano and all manner of electronic wizardry have a major impact on "It's My Pleasure." Said instruments once again prove the perfect foil for Preston's goodtimey gospel vocals as the overall feel of the disk is get down and have a good time. Top cuts on this good listen include "Do It While You Can," "I Can't Stand It" and "It's My Pleasure." Preston's message is life and how to get off on it. Here's the album, now you can.

GET DOWN — Joe Simon — Spring SPR 6706 — Producer: Joe Simon and Raeford Gerald — List: 6.98

Joe Simon is the proud father of one of the hottest dance numbers ever released on hot to trot feet, "Get Down." On the album of the same name this philosophy of moving with the feeling is continued as all cuts are suitable for moving various parts of the anatomy. Top body movers on this disk include "It Be's That Way Sometimes," "It's Crying Time In Memphis," "In My Baby's Arms" and "You Don't Want To Believe It." Feel like getting down on the floor? You can do it with this album.

NOW LOOK — Ronnie Wood — Warner Bros. BS 2872 — Producers: Ronnie Wood, Bobby Womack and Ian McLagen — List: 6.98

There's a music that's characteristic of hanging out, getting drunk and just plain getting deeply involved in the process of meeting life head on. Ron Wood is a master of this brand of music and he brings the point well home in "Now Look." From raucous rock to the most reflective of blues tinged ballads Wood proves himself well within his element. Top cuts on this disk include "I Got Lost When I Found You," "I Can't Stand The Rain" and "If You Don't Want My Love." "Now Look" is an album almost too good to play but happily you'll succumb to temptation.

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT — Neil Young — Warner Bros. MS 2221 — Producers: Neil Young and David Briggs — List: 6.98

It wouldn't be a Neil Young album without some sort of commentary on the frailty of the human condition. "Tonight's The Night" is just such a statement as Young, through the forcefulness of his music, tears at the soft white underbelly of society and forces the listener to see much of its nature in his music as well as in ourselves. Young's backing unit is more than up for the intensity of the occasion and Nils Lofgren peels off some dandy riffs on this outing. There's a lot of ourselves in Neil Young's music. If you look real hard you might find someone you recognize.

HEAD OVER HEELS — Poco — ABC ABCD-890 — Producers: Poco and Mark Harman — List: 6.98

One of the pluses of listening to a Poco album is that the vibes one partakes from the album are always something akin to pleasure. The band's deft handling of the country flavored rock medium is more than evident on "Head Over Heels." The album proves a gentle mixture of introspective ballads and just enough musical kick to show off the band as multi-dimensional. Top get-intos include "I'll Be Back Again," "Let Me Turn Back To You" and "Sittin' On A Fence." Poco's "Head Over Heels" is an excursion into joyous noise.

POWER TO THE MUSIC — The Guess Who — RCA APL 1-0995 — Producer: Jack Richardson — List: 6.98

"Power To The Music" is the latest in The Guess Who's clean, well balanced parade of pop music. No longer can the band be dismissed as a singles machine as Power holds up more in an album context. Burton Cummings' vocals, sans Jelly Roll Morton shadings, shine on all cuts while Domenic Troiano's forceful riffing anchors the rock-ballad abilities of the band. Top cuts include "Power In The Music," "When The Band Was Singin' Shakin' All Over" and the thought provoking "Rich World-Poor World." The Guess Who have been around a while and music as good as this album is the reason why.

ONE SIZE FITS ALL — Frank Zappa And The Mothers Of Invention — DiscReet DS 2216 — Producer: Frank Zappa — List: 6.98

Frank Zappa's latest excursion into the world of the musical surreal has a large amount of consistency going for it. "One Size Fits All" is a constant bombardment of sound that defies the listener to guess what's coming up next. Top cuts on this progressive tour de force are "Evelyn, A Modified Dog," "Po Jamma People" and a genuine slice of heavymetal raunch on "Can't Afford No Shoes." "One Size Fits All" is a compendium of musical experiences that lets just a little bit more of Zappa's head out into the light of day.

LIQUID LOVE — Freddie Hubbard — Columbia PC 33556 — Producer: Freddie Hubbard — List: 6.98

The more mellow approach to the progressive waves of jazz has always been a favorite of mine and so the arrival of Freddie Hubbard's "Liquid Love" is like mana from heaven. Hubbard and his talented sideman make the most of their material as Hubbard's horn runs tear new holes in the airwaves. Top cuts on this album include a masterful workout on "Midnight At The Oasis," "Yesterday's Thoughts" and a bumpy set to on "Put It In The Pocket." Freddie Hubbard's "Liquid Love" is an exercise in ebb and flow.

THE TUBES — The Tubes — A&M SP 4534 — Producer: Alan Peter Kooper — List: 6.98

Take every teenage tale of woe you've ever heard, throw in some juicy Black Sabbath riffs, add some really strange lyrics and speed the conglomeration up to about 85 revolutions per minute and you've got The Tubes; a musical excursion into mind games you never thought you'd enamor yourself to. The likes of "Mondo Bondage" and the instant left field classic, "White Punks On Dope" the group couples decadence with an off the wall approach to S and M. The Tubes; you wouldn't want your daughter to marry one. Or would you?

pop picks

SUSIE HEARTBREAKER — LTG Exchange — RCA — APL 1-1046 — Producer: Jerry Ross — List: 6.98

A funky-soulful backing provides the springboard from which the black-rock operetta "Susie Heartbreaker" takes form. The music, while an entity unto itself, serves the function of moving the storyline along at a pace conducive to keeping the point of this tale well in mind. Top get-intos on this album include "Satisfied With Your Love," "A Child Will Show You The Way" and "Cop And Blow World." The highest compliment that can be paid this concept is that you'd like to see it performed. I can't wait.

THE BEST OF MANDRILL — Mandrill — Polydor PD 6047 — Producers: Mandrill and Beau Ray Fleming — List: 6.98

The music of the ghetto streets has always had that little bit of something extra going for it. That rush of environmental so necessary to merely survive becomes a dimensional razor's edge to the rhythmic sounds of the city. One of the better groups around that have captured the essence of city funk are Mandrill and this best of package serves the perfect object lesson for a band planning on setting down any kind of roots. Mandrill is more than mere bump and grind. Best of is a musical mother.

SHAME, SHAME SHAME — Shirley And Company — Vibration VI-128 — Producer: Sylvia — List: 6.98

This is the album that launched a thousand discos. From the opening cut, resplendent in that chuka-chuka rhythm, all the ingredients necessary to get your body moving are brought into play. A major point in the overall concept of this album as a body mover are the mildly sensual vocals that blend easily with the movability of all cuts. The likes of "Cry Cry Cry" and "Keep Rolling On" show the dance elements in fine light but the classic exercise in putting it where you want it is the title cut. "Shame Shame Shame" is music to shake your moneymaker to.

OUT IN FRONT — Olympic Runners — London PS 658 — Producer: Mike Vernon — List: 6.98

The Olympic Runners have come up with some athletic music on "Out In Front" has everything going for it; basic pumping rhythm, sturdy drumming and an overall feel of extreme danceability. The mixture of soul, funk and pop is a balanced one and provides for a lot of musical mileage on the likes of single "Drag It Over Here," "Get This Thing Down," "Dump The Bump" and " 'Til The Sun Comes Up." To say that this album is an ode to physical movement is a gross understatement. "Out In Front" is an album that perspires.

DISCO GOLD — Various Artists — Scepter SPS 5120 — Producer: Various — List: 6.98

Infectious driving beat. Threadbare rhythm. And above all the ability to do sundry dances. That's the major criterion for disco music and based on this album, those fine points were adhered to with care. Songs suitable for bumping and grinding to include "We're On The Right Track" by Ultra High Frequency, "I Love You, Yes I Do" by The Independents and "Pity That Poor Man" by George Tindley. "Disco Gold" is going to get you where you live and breathe and, for that matter, move.

THE TROGGS — The Troggs — Pye 12112 — Producer: Larry Page — List: 6.98

The Troggs are most definitely back and on this Pye disk the band goes a long way toward recapturing the success they enjoyed during the English invasion. The album is punk in the finest sense of the word as "I Got Lovin' If You Want It" proves a driving pub kicker. The rush continues on "No Particular Place To Go" as Reg Presley's overt vocals play tag with the raucous-instrumental utterings. All the pent up emotion of rock and roll youth lies between the grooves of this disk, waiting for release at the touch of your turntable's needle.

JUST WANNA ROCK 'N' ROLL — Jose Feliciano — RCA APL 1-1005 — Producers: Jose Feliciano and Janna Merlyn Feliciano — List: 6.98

Jose Feliciano, long known for his quiet and introspective musical moments, shows, with this album, that there's a little bit of rock and roll in this latino's blood. Feliciano lays down some rocking on "Rock 'N' Roll" as well as some fine quality ballad treatments. Feliciano's showcase includes "Ain't That Peculiar," "Not That Kind Of Guy (Hot Burrito #1)" and "I Can't Get Next To You." Jose Feliciano's roots are hardly limited and "Just Wanna Rock 'N' Roll" more than qualifies the statement.

PAUL ANKA LIVE — Paul Anka — Barnaby BR 6013 — Producer: Bob Scerbo — List: 6.94

Paul Anka's studio talents are matched only by his performing stance. For this reason alone "Live" will prove a valuable edition to the ever growing output of Anka. This live set captures all the electricity of an Anka performance while giving the listener an insight into Anka's strong musical forays. Top cuts include "Put Your Head On My Shoulder," "For Once In My Life" and "You Are My Destiny." This album was recorded live in Las Vegas. Vegas never had it so good. Pick up on this.

DISCO PARTY — Percy Faith — Columbia KC 33549 — Producer: Ted Glasser — List: 5.98

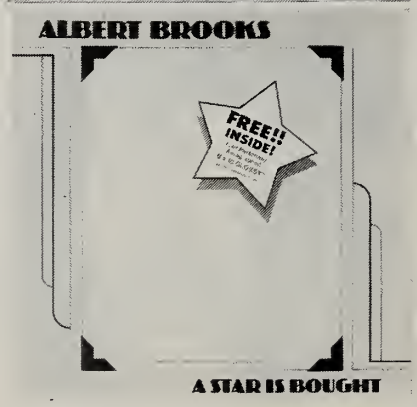
Musical interpretation of other people's songs is a touchy thing. You can either improvise them out of recognition or mimic the original without adding anything new to the composition. Fortunately on "Disco Party" Percy Faith has managed to roam far the field while keeping the nature of the song well in sight. Such diverse songs as "Cherry Cherry" and "Hava Nagilah" suffer nil in thier danceable interpretation. Other top cuts include "The King Is Dead," "Mongonucleosis" and "El Bimbo." "Disco Party" a record you can dance to.

HEART OF HEARTS — Bobby Vinton — ABC ABCD-891 — Producer: Bob Morgan — List: 6.98

On "Heart Of Hearts" Bobby Vinton proves himself a vocal technician when it comes to the rendering of ballads. His voice aids and abets the music as the two combine thier elements for an easy listen. There's nothing complicated about the Vinton sound and the sincerity of the music is best shown on the likes of "You've Got Your Mama's Eyes," "Why Can't I Get Over You" and an upbeat cover of "Beer Barrel Polka." In these hard as nails musical times it's nice to know that somebody can still do it soft.

A STAR IS BOUGHT — Albert Brooks — Asylum 7E-1035 — Producers: Albert Brooks and Harry Shearer — List: 6.98

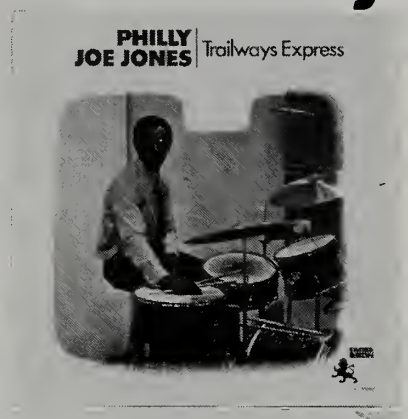
Albert Brook's offbeat brand of comedic insanity has always been a fringe item for cult laughers. Well, with "A Star Is Bought" Brooks breaks into mass acceptance via yokes based on becoming a success in various aspects of the recording industry. Top chuckles on this album include "The End Of The First Beginning," "Promotional Gimmick" and "The Englishman-German-Jew Blues." On this album Albert Brooks takes on the personna of a comedic artist; painting on broad strokes of humor. "A Star Is Bought." Buy it.



SCHOENBERG PIERROT LUNAIRE — Cleo Laine — RCA LRL-5058 — Producer: RAlph Mace — List: 6.98

The multi octave range of Cleo Lane is given a fine showcase on this album as her demonstrative, literate renditions of operatic pieces are a springboard for her emotional outpourings. There is life in Ms. Laine's interpretation of "Shoenberg's Pierrot Lunaire," Op. 21 as her expository outpourings reek of the enthusiasm so necessary for a successful interpretation of the material. The real strength of an operatic work lies in its interpretation and on this recording Schoenberg is the perfect tool for Ms. Laine's talents.

jazz



TRAILWAYS EXPRESS — Philly Joe Jones — AFE Black Lion 142 — Producer: Alan Bates — List: 6.98

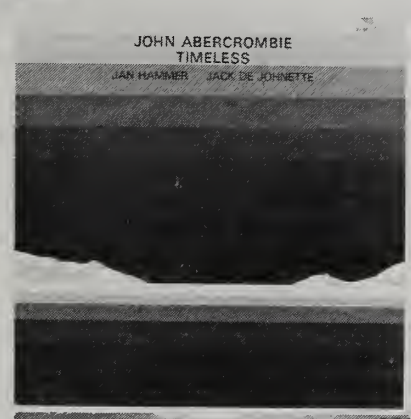
Recorded at Trident Studios, these sessions document the drummer's 1968 London visit. Each of the six tracks here contain a drum solo which brings out another side of his consummate skills. Listen for example to the way he changes from brushes to sticks during the drum solo on "Baubles, Bangles, and Beads." Jones' two originals, the rhythmic "Mo Jo" and "Trailways Express" perk as his talents as a composer are brought to the fore. The excellent musicians on these sessions including Kenny Wheeler, Les Condon, Chris Pyne, Peter King, Harold McNair, are all given the opportunity to solo, yet Jones remains in the spotlight throughout.

RING — Gary Burton Quintet with Eberhard Weber — ECM 1051 — Producer: Manfred Eicher — List: 6.98

Burton showed that he was finally back on track with his "New Quartet" LP (ECM 1030), but his latest even surpasses that exemplary '73 recording. Only guitarist Mick Goodrick remains from that group, but Burton is now reunited with his former accompanists, Steve Swallow and Bob Moses. Pat Metheny and noted bassist/composer Eberhard Weber round out the '74 session. The LP shows tremendous depth with the two guitarists demonstrating a sympathetic relationship under and around Burton's darting vibes. Perhaps Carla Bley's "Silent Spring" best shows off the textured workings of the group, with the double guitars and basses forming a network under Burton's insistent strokes.

DRUM ODE — Dave Liebman — ECM 1046 — Producer: Manfred Eicher — List: 6.98

Dave Liebman's second album for the ECM label further establishes him as one of this generation's brightest young saxophonists. Liebman has played with such notables as Miles, Elvin Jones, and John McLaughlin, but his style owes more to Coltrane, especially on his soprano work. No less than seven percussionists have been added to his Lookout Farm quartet on this "celebration" of the drum, making for a highly rhythmic foundation under Liebman's sonorous flights. As on their debut, the group covers many moods and styles. Listen to the Liebman-John Abercrombie voicings on the electric "Iguana Ritual" and for contrast, the dulcet acoustic textures of "Satya Dwani." A very satisfying second effort.

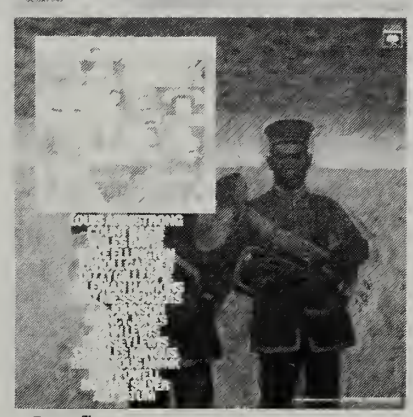


TIMELESS — John Abercrombie — ECM 1047 — Producer: Manfred Eicher — List: 6.98

John Abercrombie's first LP as a leader is an impressive one for the young musician who has already served with Dave Liebman, Billy Cobham, and Gil Evans among others. Abercrombie mades the transition from studio musician to leader of this lifetime-ish trio with relative ease. Along with Jan Hammer and Jack DeJohnette, the trio work as a harmonious unit capable of creating a melodic statement in a variety of moods without sounding clinical. Listen to the high energy of "Red and Orange" which stands in contrast to the dulcet piano-acoustic guitar duet, "Remembering" and the drone-like quality of the title track.

MOBIUS — Cedar Walton — RCA APL 1-1009 — Producer: Mike Lipskin — List: 6.98

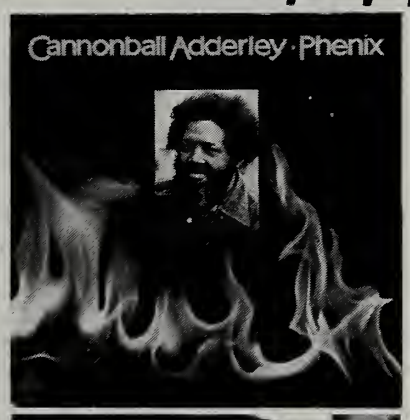
Cedar Walton alternates between keyboards and synthesizers on his first LP for the label, covering material that ranges from Coltrane's "Blue Trane" to Monk's "Off Minor" with a couple of his original compositions sandwiched inbetween. With a stellar group of musicians including Gordon Edwards on bass, Steve Gadd on drums, Ryo Kawaski on guitar and Frank Foster on tenor sax, Walton's group has a decidedly contemporary sound. A veteran of J.J. Johnson's band and once a member of Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers, Walton has made the transition to the '70s with this disk.



BLACK GIANTS — Various Artists — Columbia PG 33402 — Producer: Teo Macero — List: 7.98

A compilation of mostly previously released jazz material ranging from the indispensible creativity of a 1927 Louis Armstrong ("Potato Head Blues") to a 1972 all electric Ramsey Lewis ("Kufanya Mapenzi"). In between are tracks from Horace Silver, Charlie Mingus, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Bud Powell, etc. Intelligently programmed, two unreleased cuts are Miles Davis' 1958 "Love For Sale," before youth culture and with Cannonball Adderley, and "Blues In Hoss' Flat" which mixes the bands of Ellington and Count Basie. Should have appeal and merit to a rocker seeking wide horizons and the many forms of jazz.

pop picks



PHENIX — Cannonball Adderley — Fantasy F 79004 — Producer: Cannonball Adderley, Nat Adderley & Orrin Keepnews

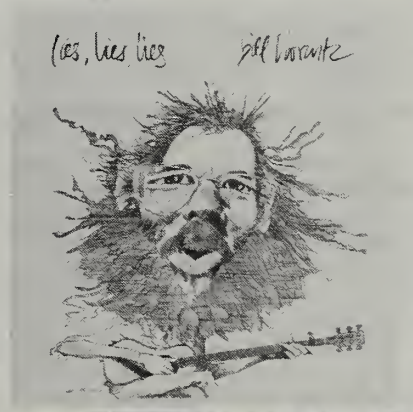
Adderley steps lightly this outing as this two record package on Fantasy allows him room to stretch out and flex his creative muscles a bit. On "Phenix" the likes of "The Sidewalks Of New York" and "Stars Fell On Alabama" get a superior workout from Adderley and company. Other top cuts include "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy," "74 Miles Away" and "High Fly." The Adderley touch continues to one of the velvet glove as his handling of material makes him a prime candidate for Phenix of the jazz age.

MOVIES IN ME — John Dankworth and his Orchestra — RCA LPL 15092 — Producer: John Dankworth

The intelligent and darting use of horns over an orchestrated setting highlights John Dankworth's interpretation of movie themes on "Movies In Me." His jazzical-pop approach to recreating movie magic makes for a sound at once intimate and mellow. Top cuts on this album include "Return From The Ashes," "East St. Louis Boogaloo" and "Herbie Walks Again." Production values on this album run smooth as silk and contribute to the overall listenability of all compositions.

HIRTH FROM EARTH — Hirth Martinez — WB BS 2867 — Producer: Robbie Robertson-- List: 6.98

Hirth Martinez's approach to music is laidback without being comatose, aggressive without being blaring. On "Hirth From Earth" Hirth gets into some lighthearted storytelling that fits in well with the simplicity of his musical structuring. Top excursions into the mind of Hirth include "Comin' Round the Moon," "That's The Way It's Gotta Go" and "I Don't Know Why The Hell." Good production abounds on this album and goes a long way towards making "Hirth From Earth" a collection of out of this world music.



LIES LIES LIES — Bill Horwitz — ESP 3020 — Producer: Bill Horwitz and David Butler

It's been a while since contemporary music has unleashed a social commentator with any bite. Such a musical study is Bill Horwitz who on "Lies Lies Lies" puts the lyrical boot to a whole lot of people, places and things. His simple musical accompaniment and laid-back vocals serve well in driving his well delivered points home. Top musical barbs include "Consumption," "New American Guilt Trip" and "If I Had A Friend Like Rosemary Woods." Most people think about it. Billy Horwitz says it.

FUEL — Larry Young — Arista Al 4051 — Producer: Larry Young & Terry Philips

Larry Young has built up quite a reputation as a keyboardist. He only plays with the best. And so when it was time to get his own thing together you knew a large amount of that creative energy would make its presence felt. Young's excursions into the realm of native based jazz makes good use of the playoff between keyboards and vocals for that proper flighty effect. Top cuts include "New York Electric Street Music," "Turn Off The Lights" and a racing "Fuel For The Fire." Larry Young's "Fuel" is high octane music.

RUN TELL THE PEOPLE — Daniel Boone — Pye 12105 — Producer: Larry Page — List: 6.98

Lightweight rock and roll music that purports to be nothing more than good entertainment and a good listen. "Run Tell The People" is all that and much more as Daniel Boone takes us on a bouncey good time musical journey that is as polished as it is entertaining. High on this album's list of good listens are "Singing Backing Vocal With A Rock 'N' Roll Band," "Who Turned The Light Out Of My Life" and "Running Around With The Boys Again." "Run Tell The People" that good music is on the way.

soul waves

By playing 360 degrees of music Rod McGrew, station manager at KJLH-FM Los Angeles has come a long way from his early days back in 1968 as the midnight to six jock on KCBA. "When I got back into radio in 1972 after manufacturing shirts, promoting concerts and going into politics I wanted to approach the station management with a whole new concept in programming. I came in and rapped about universal programming, multi-sounds of music, ethnic sounds and different patterns and concepts concerning jazz, pop, r&b, mor, and top 40. I knew it could be done if programmed properly. At first it sounded foreign, but it sounded so good that they gave me a show."

In six months Rod was getting such favorable response from listeners that the station made him program director. Rod's programming techniques are based on the fact that all people are universal beings. Rod said, "Just because we live in the United States doesn't mean that we are right and unapproachable to new ideas. We can learn something, anything from anybody, and we as people need to go beyond the boundaries that society puts on us."

Rod related back to his own childhood in L.A. saying when he was growing up all he listened to on the radio was jazz and r&b and that artists like The Beatles and other contemporary groups of the time were foreign to him because they were not played on black radio. So Rod decided when he went into radio that he wanted to expand the base of people's consciousness in music. "I didn't want to have just an r&b or jazz station, but I wanted to have a radio station that programmed music, because music is the common denominator. I felt that all kinds of music could be incorporated into one kind of show if there was a happy medium, and the happy medium turned out to be mellow music.

After Rod started training other jocks with his programming concepts, he found that he was moving even farther away from the mor program concept. He found even more music that fit into his 360 degree concept. "There was a lot of music out there that was harder but still maintained a melodic line without getting into avant garde. "I found out that groups like Chicago, AWB, Weather Report, Steely Dan and others could be programmed in if they were put in the proper context. So now I am finding that my circle keeps getting larger but that it is still perfect, but it is getting more universal in scope."

Rod sees the music of today stripping away all barriers and misconceptions regarding people. "Forty percent of the playlists of pop stations are now occupied by black artists. Black records are now selling better than ever. It doesn't matter as much who the artist is, but more importantly on his music and what he is saying with his music."

When questioned about the resistance of black stations to play white artists. Rod said, "Fair exchange is no robbery and that black stations shouldn't use reverse racism as their criterion. The criterion is the concept of music, music educates people." For example Rod said that the J-5 can go over to Japan and tear everybody up with their music even though the people there don't understand the lyric content. The most important thing is that the music is vibrant and alive and this is what people all over the world understand. "Why should I limit myself to a corner. When you limit yourself to a corner that is all you'll ever know. One has to take it upon himself or herself to be out there, aggressive and inquisitive and have the ability to be able to go beyond and see what else is out there that you like. When I was younger I had no idea that I would love Barbra Streisand, or a Helen Reddy, Dusty Springfield or a Jack Jones. I didn't understand the heaviness of the lyric content of somebody like John Lennon and Paul McCartney. Those two guys were out there giving people messages that were relevant to the sixties. The problem lies in that blacks have been isolated in Los Angeles, they have for the most part been unexposed to other cultures.

Rod feels that radio is an essential tool in spreading communication and he feels it is his obligation as a communicator to let blacks know not only what is happening in their own community, but in the world. "There is a definite need for people to know of the totality of music. More people are buying black product such as Leroy Hutson and Voices Of East Harlem because they are listening to more stations than KHJ. Rod added, it's a proven fact that when people hear things that they are the true judges as to what they like, what they relate to, and what they buy.

To be a good programmer, Rod feels an individual has to have a good knowledge of all kinds of music and the ability to be able to put it together in a format. Rod calls it the ability to paint pictures with words and music. "You have to do more than play records and tell people to have a good time. "The O'Jays 'Love Train' is a good tune to use as an example. What the O'Jays are talking about is love. They are talking about life. Before the cut goes on, I feel a need to tell the people to listen to the message whle they are dancin' and doing the bump."

What Rod looks for in a good jock is his ability to know music, to put together a program and to be intelligent, articulate and sincere.

Rod doesn't see too much difference between FM & AM radio, only that the quality of FM with stereo gives the listener a better sound. However regarding programming he feels that for the most part AM radio lacks creativity, is irresponsible, only interested in the commercial dollar and unconcerned with the need to convey education to the community. He also sees AM radio taking money out of the community and putting very little back.

Rod would like to see more of a blend of education and entertainment. "Not to make the education boring, but trying through music to learn and grow, somewhat similar to the television show "Sesame Street." "I think that through music and radio one can get exposure to life problems which you don't get sitting in school."

Rod said he is very disgusted with tight playlists and feels that programmers are basically lazy. "There is no reason why a record should be played more than once every three hours. Our station moves a lot of product. A lot of artists are exposed, everybody should get a break — the artist as well as the listener. People don't know that they can stop stations from broadcasting what they are broadcasting by writing letters to station managers, programs directors and the government. I know many of my peers may not be happy with some of my statements but I have to be honest and truthful and more importantly live with myself. I have a conscience and it lets me know they're only concerned with money and not quality. Kids listen to the radio and kids want to know. We have to prepare our children for today and tomorrow."

Bare, Nashville 'Through Eyes Of Children'

NASHVILLE — Rediscovering America through the eyes of children is the basic objective of a new children's television series and Bobby Bare, his family, Nashville's music industry, Opryland, U.S.A., and a 12-year-old dobro guitar player from New Jersey are helping to tell the story.

The series, "Call It Macaroni," takes its title from a line in "Yankee Doodle Dandy," one of the most revered songs in American history.

Group W television (Westinghouse), producers and syndicators of the program, had a large film crew in Nashville recently shooting footage at RCA's recording studios, Opryland, and at Bobby Bare's lakeside home in Hendersonville. Shooting began Monday, June 16 and continued through Friday, June 20. Filming Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday was at Opryland with Roy Acuff participating.

The premise of the show follows two comparative examinations of the world of country music; one is that of 12-year-old Matty Levine, visiting Bobby from Middletown, New Jersey, The other viewpoint is that of Bobby Bare's family, veterans of the industry and long-time residents of the area.

The focus, of course, is on the music; country music is Matty's really strong love. Says Bare's wife Jeannie: "He really loves it! He isn't interested in swimming or anything else — he just wants to pick!" And he's getting his fill at an RCA recording session with Bobby and the family and at a concert at Opryland.

"Call It Macaroni" is, according to broadcast industry spokesmen, a quality, prestige series aimed at eleven- and twelve-year-olds. It's geared to family viewing; therefore, on its 103 stations the once-a-month show is aired either in early evenings or late afternoons (weekdays and weekends).

The Bare-Levine program is the thirteenth in the series, the first program of the second year. Nashvillians will see the program starting next fall.

There are two producers working full time on the series. Gail Frank is directing the Nashville team. She says other programs in the series have accompanied youngsters climbing Mt. Hood in Oregon, weathering an ocean storm in a schooner off Nantucket, and sail-planing and hang-gliding.

Other Nashville scenes filmed include Matty's arrival at Nashville's airport and his greeting by Bare and the family; Matty and Bobby picking on the boat dock near the Bare home; a Bare Family recording session at RCA (with Bobby, Jeannie, Cari, Shannon, and Bobby Junior), and an escorted tour by Shannon and Bobby Junior of selected "caves" and other boy-type play spots.

He played before more than 58,000 employees and their families, and an R.J. Reynolds spokesman said their records indicate it was the largest catered event in the history of the U.S., as well as the largest gathering ever held by the giant tobacco firm. Winston-Salem is national headquarters for the Reynolds company.

Buddy Lee Teams W/Loeb & Weems

NASHVILLE — An amalgamation with California talent representative William Loeb and his firm, Loeb & Weems, will expand the scope of the Nashville-based Buddy Lee Attractions, Inc. operation. "This opens up pop areas to our country artists and gives us west coast representation for television and movies," said Lee.

Loeb and his firm will be west coast representative for Lee's country music artists and Lee will handle booking for Loeb's artists. Loeb predicted the combining of his pop and contemporary agency with Lee's country group will be the beginning of similar consolidations. "I think we're pioneering something," said Loeb. "There is a much stronger demand for crossover artists in television, films and other markets," he added.

On Loeb's roster of artists are such names as Ed Ames, Henny Youngman, Kay Starr, Joannie Summers, Donald O'Connor, Louis Nye, Rose Marie, Morey Amsterdam, Rosemary Clooney and Pat Buttram.

Artists under contract with Buddy Lee Attractions include Danny Davis & The Nashville Brass, Don Gibson, George Morgan, Lois Johnson, Ronnie Dove, Tommy Cash, Stonewall Jackson, Billy Thunderkloud & The Chieftones, Skeeter Davis, Bobby G. Rice and Red Sovine.

Buddy Lee Attractions executive vice president Mrs. Johnnie Massey pointed out the arrangement with Loeb & Weems does not constitute a takeover of either firm, but that each organization would retain its own identity and officers. Lee remains president of his firm with Mrs. Massey as executive vice president.

Country Artist Of The Week
Stella Parton

STELLA MEANS STAR — Anyone who believes in predestination would agree that Stella Parton was destined to become a star. Aside from the fact that her parents chose for her the name Stella — in itself, a propitious start — her natural talent and determination coupled with an extensive musical background has brought her a great deal of success.

Born in Sevierville, Tennessee, the sixth of twelve children, Stella was surrounded by singing and songwriting for as long as she can remember. From the time she was old enough to carry a tune, Stella was singing in her grandfather's church. Her professional debut occurred at age 9, when she performed on the Cas Walker radio show in Knoxville. From that time on, Stella set her sights on a career in music, and she began to appear on a number of radio and talent shows. At age 19 she organized her first band, The Family Affair, which played clubs and concerts along the east coast.

Stella's recording debut attracted attention, and put her in demand for show dates throughout the country. At that time, Stella met producer and manager Bob Dean, president of Country Soul Records, who signed her to his label. At their first session, Stella recorded two songs co-written by herself and Bob, "Ode To Olivia," and "I Want To Hold You In My Dreams Tonight." "Ode" was subsequently released by International Record Distributing Associates as a single on the Country Soul label. But by accident, a local radio station obtained an acetate copy of "I Want To Hold You . . ." and began programming it. The song became an immediate hit, and necessitated the release of a new single, "I Want To Hold You . . ." by IRDA which is presently climbing charts throughout the nation.

Although most of Stella's time is now spent travelling around the country doing shows and club acts, she still finds time to write new material. A followup single is being released soon, and she plans to do an album in the near future. Stella's bookings are being handled, non-exclusively, by the Joe Taylor Agency.

ABC/Country, ABC/Dot Merge

NASHVILLE — The ABC/Country and ABC/Dot labels are merging into one organization under the direction of Jim Fogelsong, announced ABC chairman Jerold H. Rubinstein. Ther merger is effective immediately and will involve the combining of facilities, personnel and contractees under the ABC/Dot logo.

Both based in Nashville, ABC/Country and ABC/Dot have each a number of major country music stars under contract, including Jimmy Buffett, Johnny Carver, Roy Clark, Brian Collins, Billy "Crash" Craddock, Connie Eaton, Narvel Felts, Freddy Fender, Lefty Frizzell, Ferlin Husky, Jeris Ross, Diana Trask, Freddy Weller and Don Williams.

Fogelsong has been head of the Dot operation for four and one-half years and president since 1973. Speaking of the upcoming merger, he predicted "that by consolidating the two artist rosters, we'll be recognized as a dominant label in the country music field . . . and well on our way to becoming number one."

Rubinstein added "a single country music operation is not only more efficient, it is more effective, giving us a harder hitting more directed approach to the problems of sales and promotion. I'm confident that under Jim's leadership, the new ABC/Dot will realize our full potential for growth in the rapidly expanding country music idiom."

accompaniment. MCA's Jerry Jeff Walker and The Lost Gonzo Band reciprocated that positive energy throughout their set of well-articulated outrageousness.

Walker immediately proceeded to "Pick Up The Tempo Just A Little Bit" with some fine pickin', and his characteristically gravelly vocals created the road on which he and the band took it on home via "Redneck Mother," "I Love That Sangria Wine," among other stops along the way. The Lost Gonzo Band, featuring some excellent licks by reed player Tomas Ramirez, is perfectly matched with Jerry Jeff and jump right in there with the same energy as their driver.

The unabashedly honest nature of Walker's music creates an instant and tangible communicative bond between himself, his band, and the audience. The wild and wooly SRO crowd related very well to Jerry Jeff's succinct synopsis of his lifestyle: "I like to sleep late in the morning/I don't like to wear no shoes/makin' love to the women while I'm still livin'/and get drunk on a bottle of booze." If he can keep up the pace and the word of mouth continues to travel, the prospects are very good for one of America's best songwriters to receive the wider exposure he deserves.

Pride On Tour In South Pacific

NEW YORK — Charley Pride, RCA artist whose current single, "I Ain't All Bad," is in the top 10 of the U.S. country charts, left July 4 for a month-long concert tour of Hawaii, Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand. RCA's Australian subsidiary reports first ads about the tour brought such a rash of ticket buyers that the entire tour is a virtual sellout.

The tour, except for one concert in Honolulu, is being presented by Paradine-Paterson, Ltd., Australian promoters.

It is Charley's first concert visit 'Down Under,' but his fame is already well established there, and RCA's Australian subsidiary said announcement of the tour had sent the sales of his album skyrocketing. With Charley in the concerts will be the Pridesmen and the vocal group Dave Rowland and Sugar. Pat Condon of Paradine-Paterson is arranging for Australian acts to open each show.

Top Billing Pacts Goodman Corp.

NASHVILLE — Rev. John Stalls, general manager of the Goodman Corp. headquartered in Madisonville, Ky., and Tandy C. Rice, Jr., president of Top Billing, Inc., jointly have announced the signing of the Happy Goodman Family to an exclusive booking pact.

The Happy Goodman Family will be a part of the company's newly-formed gospel division under the direction of Robert D. (Bob) Bray.

Plans are underway for a soon-to-be-announced road show featuring The Goodmans, and a major country music star. The touring unit will be activated in conjunction with the 1976 bicentennial celebration.

The award-winning Happy Goodman Family has been nominated six times for Emmy Awards by the National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences. Two of the show's soloists have received "best vocalists of the year" awards.

Glen Campbell To Tee In U.K.

HOLLYWOOD — Glen Campbell will participate in the second annual USA vs. UK Pro-Celebrity Golf Tournament, Aug. 28-Sept. 3, at the legendary Gleneagles Golf Club in Scotland between his summer tour appearances. Campbell will join a select roster of pros and low-handicap celebrities at the tourney, to be filmed by BBC for subsequent telecasting.

Campbell regularly participates in pro-am events in the U.S., as well as hosting the Glen Campbell Los Angeles Open, a major annual event on the PGA tournament circuit.

He'll participate in ceremonies at baseball's All-Star Game, July 15 in Milwaukee, before embarking on the next phase of a concert series that includes performances in Missouri, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and Utah.

Nelson Sets Box Office Records In Texas

AUSTIN — Willie Nelson has set a multiple box office record in Texas this year; since the first of this year, 29 Willie Nelson concerts in the Lone Star state alone have been sold out prior to show time. That's an average of almost five concerts per month, all within driving distance of the state's major metropolitan centers — Dallas, Austin, Houston and San Antonio. In the Dallas/Ft. Worth area alone, Willie and his band have performed 14 times so far this year, to standing-room-only crowds every time.

The Texas concerts have been played in the larger halls and honky tonks, with crowds running from 2,000 to 10,000. A few have been out of doors, such as the recent show on the vast parking lot at old Love Field in Dallas where several thousand fans showed up with such enthusiasm that Willie and his band had to be escorted away from the site after the show by the police. At one point during that one, Willie was almost yanked from the high stage head-first by two young female fans who managed to grab hold of his guitar strap by riding on their dates' shoulders.

THE RED-HEADED STRANGER — Willie Nelson, recently signed to Columbia, paid a visit to Columbia's Nashville office to meet the staff. Joining Willie are (l. to r.) his manager Neil Reshen; Bonnie Garner, Columbia a&r coordinator; Willie; Ron Bledsoe, operations vice president for CBS Records in Nashville. Standing are Dan Beck, manager of press and public information for CBS Records, and Gene Ferguson, Columbia's director of national country promotion. Willie's first Columbia album, titled appropriately "The Red-Headed Stranger," was released to precede his 3rd annual Fourth of July picnic which this year will be held at Liberty Hill, Texas. The multifaceted Willie also performed with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra last Friday, (27).

Loeb, Buddy Lee Coordinate Prod.

NEW YORK — Loeb & Weems, the California talent rep, and the Nashville-based Buddy Lee Attractions, Inc. have joined together to coordinate their independent efforts. William Loeb's firm will be west coast representatives for Lee's country music artists, and Lee will handle booking for Loeb's artists. "This opens up pop areas to our country artists and gives us west coast representation for television and movies," noted Lee.

On Loeb's roster are such names as Ed Ames, Henny Youngman, Louis Nye, Rose Marie, Rosemary Clooney and others. Artists working with Buddy Lee include Danny Davis & The Nashville Brass, Don Gibson, George Morgan and others.

Buddy Lee recently opened a New York City branch, added to their Omaha, Nebraska outlet.

'Hee Haw' Begins New Season

NASHVILLE — The 1975-76 winter season of "Hee Haw" will feature an impressive array of guest stars along with a few new and funny vingettes.

Slated as guests over the 13 weeks are Johnny Cash, George Gobel, Ray Stevens, Freddy Fender, Mel Tillis, Jody Miller, Barbara Fairchild, Barbara Mandrell, Billy Walker, Ronnie Milsap, Tammy Wynette, and Joe Stampley.

"Hee Haw" regular Kenny Price "moves" from his spot behind a train station window to a spot on "The Bus Stop," and Grandpa Jones will do a takeoff on Shell's Bicentennial spots. Of course, while his "Country Bicentennial Moments" may be "factual," they're "Hee Haw" humorous. Following an absence, Gordie Tapp, Junior Samples, Grandpa Jones, and that "big gal with the animated face," Lulu Roman, return to Cornfield county with their deadpan portrayal as "The Culhanes." And, in one spot during the season guest star Johnny Cash totally surprises Archie Campbell with a pie in the face.

All in all, it promises to be another hit season for the already #1 syndicated show in the country.

Gospel Music Association Expands

NASHVILLE — Option has been acquired on a prime tract of land on Music Row in Nashville by the Gospel Music Association to construct a Gospel Music Hall of Fame, and a $3-million fund raising campaign has been launched.

Brock Speer, former president of GMA and now chairman of the Hall of Fame Benefit Concert fund raising committee, also has announced a series of concerts across the country. Five programs are scheduled in August with a goal of $20,000 in the initial portion of the fund raising campaign.

Additional concerts are being planned for August and others in September coinciding with Gospel Music Month which is being proclaimed by many state governors and possibly nationally through a measure now pending in the U.S. Congress.

Speer said participating gospel groups, their booking agents and local promoters are donating their time and efforts for these concerts. In many cases, the auditoriums and other facilities are also being donated.

Adult tickets for the concerts are priced at donations of $5 each and a two-part ticket will be issued so that the purchaser may keep one-half of the ticket as a tax-deductable gift to the Gospel Music Hall of Fame.

Initial concert is scheduled on Mon., Aug. 4 at Kingsland Theater in St. Louis, Mo., with the Lester Family promoting it and Don Butler of Sumar Talent Agency as the contact.

Other concerts are scheduled for Aug. 11 in Calhoun, Georgia, with Max Branon as promoter and Herman Harper of the Don Light Talent Agency as contact; The Clanton, Alabama airfield on Mon., Aug. 18 with Jim Heffner and Bobby King promoting, Lou Hildreth of Nashville Gospel Talent Agency as contact. Other concerts are scheduled for Pennsylvania and North Carolina, with the site to be announced at a later date.

Speer has expressed the wish that other promoters join in this fund raising effort and asked those that are interested in such promotions write him at the Gospel Music Association, Box 1201, Nashville, Tennessee 37202.

Billy "Crash" Craddock says "I Love The Blues And The Boogie Woogie" — The Hager Brothers, Jim and Jon, celebrated their sixth anniversary on "Hee Haw" at a party engagement at The Palomino Club recently. On hand to congratulate them and wish them well, were John Ellsworth and Sam Lovello, producers of the show.

Va.; Packard Hall, Warren, Ohio; and Ponderosa Park, Salem, Ohio. Llynn has a new release titled "I'm A One Nighter" on Lake Front Records.

Contrary to popular belief, Billy Swan was never a guard at Elvis Presley's Graceland home. He just hung out there. Billy is now preparing for the release of his new Monument album "Rock & Roll Moon." Meanwhile, Billy's "Don't Be Cruel" single is rising quickly on the British charts; John Lennon has named Billy's worldwide hit, "I Can Help" as one of his favorite songs of the past year, and has asked Billy to pen an original song for his next album.

Monument Records was the first record company to come to the aid of the financially troubled Exit/Inn in Nashville. With the help of Billy Swan and Barefoot Jerry, Monument sponsored a benefit to promote funds from within the music industry to keep the popular club in operation. Swan and Barefoot performed in two concerts at the Exit/Inn. Tickets sold for $10 and both shows were sold out. Some of the folks who came to help were Ray Stevens, Alvin Lee, Jerry Jeff Walker, Guy Clark, and John Prine.

Charlie McCoy's bruised and swollen lips are not the result of overwork. Charlie, who's an avid Little League fan, was playing catcher for his son's team and got socked in the mouth by a "fast" ball.

The seven concerts Billy Swan co-headlined last month with Eddie Mitchell at Paris' Olympia Theatre were total sell-outs. Some of the biggest names in France's "show-biz" crowd, including Charles Aznavour and Johnny Halladay, turned out to see Mitchell and his Nashville band composed of Charlie McCoy, Wayne Moss, Russ Hicks, Jim Colvard, David Briggs etc. on their final night in the "city of light."

After writing such hits as "Midnight Flyer" for the Eagles and "Keep Me From Blowing Away" for Linda Ronstadt, not to mention soon to be released songs for Moe Bandy and Don Gibson, Paul Craft has written a new single for himself titled "Child In The Cradle (For Linda)." This follows his recent success with "It's Me Again Margaret" on Truth Records.

Jim Mundy has signed a booking agreement with Top Billing, Inc., Nashville based agency. The ABC recording artist who voices commercials and lyrics for such products as Nestea, Pillsbury, Hungry Jack, Beechnut Chewing Tobacco, Union 76 Truck Stops and Coca Cola, has just signed to sing the praises of a new product, Miller Hi-Life beer for national television.

Sonny James, artist and producer, took time out in between performances at Jamboree U.S.A. to talk to long time friend and business associate, Stan Hutto. Stan is presently the sound engineer at Jamboree U.S.A. recording studios. Stan and Sonny worked together during the production of Marie Osmond's "Paper Roses" in addition to several of Sonny's own recordings.

Ronnie Prophet has been signed to RCA Victor Records in Canada. His first release is a song called "Sanctuary." In three weeks it has jumped to 34 in the RPM Canadian charts. United States RCA released the record here on June 24.

Chuck Glaser, who heads Nashville's Nova Agency, has announced that Jessi Colter, the Capitol recording artist whose current single "I'm Not Lisa" hiked up to number one on the national charts, was a featured performer on the Midnight Special taping in Hollywood last June 24. Jessi will also be filming the Jim Stafford show in Hollywood July 4, 5, and 6.

Tompall Glaser, Waylon Jennings and Jessi Colter have just completed taping Down Home Country in Toronto, for Canadian Broadcasting Corp. The show is the Tommy Hunter replacement, and is hosted by Tom Galant and produced by Stan Jacobson. Tompall will be making a rare appearance in Nashville at the Exit/Inn on June 14 and 15. FARON YOUNG (Mercury 73692)
Here I Am In Dallas (2:35) (Hank Williams, Jr. Music, Inc. — BMI) (L. Morris, R. Hughes, T. Ishmall)
Faron hasn't moved to Dallas, but he will move up the charts with this new one produced by Jerry Kennedy. With a good solid rockin' country beat featuring guitar, Faron sings about looking for a woman that should have been in Dallas and wasn't.

BUCK OWENS & SUSAN RAYE (Capitol P-4100)
Love Is Strange (2:29) (Ben-Ghazi Music Co. — BMI) (Smith, Baker, Robinson)

BOBBY BARE (RCA PB 10318)
Alimony (2:14) (TRO-Hollis Music — BMI) (Shel Silverstein)
Easy and swinging Bobby Bare starts this Shel Silverstein tune acappella and then moves on into a simple infectious rhythm that is sure to capture quick chart action. The tune is from his "Hard Times Hungry" LP and bemoans the hardships of paying alimony.

DICKEY LEE)RCA PB 10280
The Door's Always Open (2:50) (Jack Music, Inc. — BMI) (Bob McDill, Dickey Lee)
Dickey's vocal, production and writing talents make a perfect marriage on this uptempo tune already receiving airplay. Along with top vocal background and strong instrumentation, Dickey sings of a steadfast love that will always be waiting with an "open door."

JEANNIE SEELY (MCA 40428)
Take My Hand (3:08) (Tree Pub. Co., Inc. — BMI) (Hank Cochran)
Jeannie is at her best with this solid country/gospel sound. The production by Walter Haynes features some good guitar work with added excitement of occasional deep bass vocals found in the gospel sound. A good bet for top chart action.

SARAH JOHNS (RCA PB 10333)
I'm Ready To Love You Now (2:54) (Chess Music, Inc. — ASCAP/Pi-Gem Music — BMI) (Bud Reneau, Sarah Kouns)
Produced by Jack D. Johnson, Sarah delivers a fresh uptempo vocal that shows top chart potential. Singing in both Spanish and English, Sarah is accompanied by the vocals of the Nashville Edition with string arrangements by Bergen White.

LITTLE DAVID WILKINS (MCA 40427)
One Monkey Don't Stop No Show (2:30) (Forrest Hills Music, Inc. — BMI) (David Wilkins, Tim Marshall)
"Little" David gets right down and rocks with this uptempo tune he co-wrote with Tim Marshall. A good one for dancing and charting with its fast movement and good instrumental track.

THE NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND (UA XW655Y)
All I Have To Do (Acuff-Rose/House of Bryant — BMI) (B. Bryant)
Already receiving heavy airplay and charting nationally, the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band revive this Everly Brothers tune penned by Boudleaux Bryant. The uptempo track is filled with a lot of added nuggets of harmonica, etc. and is from the LP "Dream."

COMPTON BROTHERS (ABC/Dot DOA 17563)
By The Time I'm Over You (2:34) (Brothers Two Music — ASCAP) (B. Albright, L. Welbourne)
The Brothers capture a bright, uptempo, very young sound about meeting at the schoolhouse for a fun nite of dancing and seeing the big show in town with a back stage pass. Produced by Jim Williamson and Bill Compton, the track has "breakdown" fiddle that sets toes dancing.

DAVID ROGERS (UA XW667Y)
Memories To Spare (2:25) (Tomake Music Co., Inc. — ASCAP) (L. Hargrove)
From his first album for UA titled "Whole Lotta Livin' In A House," David and his producer, Pete Drake, have captured a crossover sound that could get good chart action. David sings a Linda Hargrove tune about treasured memories.

SUNDAY SHARPE (UA XW666Y)
I Gave All I Had To Him (2:49) (Unart Music Corp./Ben Peters Music — BMI) (B. Peters, L. Butler)
The "I'm Having Your Baby" girl is back again singing a slow, moving ballad. Produced by Larry Butler, with string arrangement by Bill Justis, Sunday sings a sad song of the memory of a past love.

SHERRY BRYCE (MGM M14812)
Congratulations (3:09) (Beechwood Music Corp./Richbare Music — BMI) (D. Glasser, J. Arbuckle)
Sherry brings her vocal talents to a moving, sad ballad of lost love. Backed with the combination of production and writing of Dick Glasser, the tune is a perfect blending which should capture crossover action.

BILLIE JO SPEARS (UA XW653Y)
Stay Away From The Apple Tree (2:46) (Unart Music/Brougham Hall Music — BMI) (L. Butler, R. Bowling)
On this ballad with full instrumentation plus violins and organ, Billie Jo adds tremendous vocal lyrics which are a modern day version of warning about the temptation of Eve under the apple tree. Larry Butler produced this one with string arrangement by Bill Justis.

SHARON VAUGHN (ABC/Dot DOA 17553)
Go To Your Room And Play (2:48) (Jack and Bill Music — ASCAP) (Jerry Foster, Bill Rice)
Bill Rice has produced a simple track that is a perfect background for Sharon's moving account of a child's traumatic experience of being sent to her room while her parents quarrel and then go their separate ways. This sounds like a big one for Sharon.

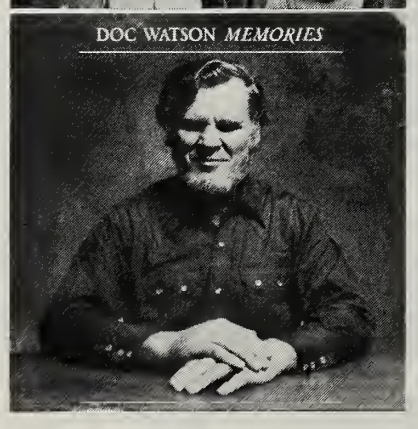
LP's

CHARLEY PRIDE — Charley — RCA APL 1-1038
Simply titled "Charley," this new LP is a perfect showcase of the smooth, masterful delivery so typical of Charley Pride. Containing his current #1 single "I Ain't All Bad," it also has top cuts such as "Hope You're Feelin' Me (Like I'm Feelin' You)," "Searching For The Morning Sun," "Fools" and others, with one of our favorites being "Now Auhen." As an added bonus, RCA has included a large poster for Charley Pride fans.

JERRY CLOWER — Live In Picayune — MCA-486
The "Comic Of The Year" — "The Mouth Of The Mississippi" from "Yazoo City," Jerry Clower is alive and well, thank you, and "Live In Picayune." Recorded live at the Picayune High School in Picayune and produced by Snuffy Miller, Jerry is at his best with his tales about his "Physical Examination," "Bird Huntin' At Uncle Versie's," "Rattlesnake Roundup," "The Coon Huntin' Monkey," "Uncle Versie's Horse," and of course "Marcel" is up to his tricks with the Snuff, Old Goose and Hair Growing Secret. This is the fifth album for Jerry and one of his funniest.

JIM REEVES — Songs Of Love — RCA APL 1-1037
Although the voice of Jim Reeves has been stilled, he has left a legacy which is a constant reminder of his great talent and vocal style which is timeless. This LP is mostly a collection of songs that were hits during World War II, such as "You'll Never Know," "White Cliffs Of Dover," "Oh, What It Seemed To Be" with a few old and new favorites thrown in like "Moonlight And Roses" and "Moon River." It is an LP to be kept for repeat listening pleasure.

DANNY DAVIS AND THE NASHVILLE BRASS — Dream Country — RCA APL 1-1043
Produced by Bob Ferguson, Danny Davis and The Nashville Brass bring their distinctive sound to old favorites such as "Running Bear," "Making Believe," "My Elusive Dreams," "I Can't Help It (If I'm Still In Love With You)," and show themes of "Brannigan" and "Peppy Time Tune." There are also plenty of glimpses of the 'big band era' throughout the LP, with today's steel guitar and banjo added for spice.



DOC WATSON — Memories — United Artists — UA LA423-H2
This double LP collection of some of American music's finest tunes shines like a multi-faceted gem; refractions include songs written and recorded over the last several decades by A.P. Carter, Jimmy Rodgers, and patriarch Doc himself. "Memories" is a definite must for American music enthusiasts and especially for students of the evolutionary process our indiginous music has undergone. Choice cuts include "Keep On The Sunny Side," "You Don't Know My Mind Blues," and the choice musicians include Doc's son Merle. Again, a must.

JIM ALLEY (Avco CAV 614)
Her Memory Is Home Tonight (2:40) (Brougham Hall Music — BMI) (Roger Bowling, Frank Mull)
Jim sings a song of lost love and the misery of heartache with convincing power. Produced by George Rickey, the record has an easy-going style with interesting guitar treatment.

CAROLYN HESTER (Capitol P4101)
Don't Touch Me (2:56) (Tree Pub. Co. — BMI) (Hank Cochran)
Produced by Cliffie Stone and arranged by Billy Liebert, Capitol Records has taken talented Carolyn from folk into country with Hank Cochran's "Don't Touch Me" as her debut single. We look for some top chart action on this one.

Vending Merchandising Seminar Draws National Audience

CHICAGO — More than 90 industry representatives; representing manufacturers, suppliers, and vending-foodservice management operating companies took part in a two-day merchandising seminar at the Marriott Hotel here last weekend.

Round-the-clock panel discussions were chaired by industry experts and by several marketing and nutrition experts from universities.

The merchandising symposium was organized by NAMA, the national association of the $10 billion vending and foodservice management industry.

Profs. Don Webb of the University of Missouri and M. Godfrey Parsons of Central Michigan University told the group how to analyze market segments, how to obtain consumer feedback and how to organize a vending company marketing plan.

Dr. Fergus M. Clydesdale, University of Massachusetts nutrition professor, covered facts and myths about the nutrition aspects of foods and recommended that companies in the vending field take part in consumer education on the subject of nutrition.

Experts from vending and supplier companies discussed approaches to merchandise more effectively and an operator group advocated that better forecasting and goal setting is needed if vending company managers are to improve their return on invested capital.

MOA Execs Address Copyright Committee

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Early this month representative members of the MOA Legislative Committee testified in Washington before the Subcommittee of the House Judiciary Committee on the jukebox section of the General Copyright Revision Bill (H.R. 2223, 94th Congress). Some weeks prior to the hearing on June 3, MOA legal counsel Nicholas E. Allen and executive vice president Fred Granger had worked out the strategy for MOA participation. Legislative Committee witnesses were Fred Collins, Jr., president; Russ Mawdsley, immediate past president and chairman of the MOA Legislative Committee; Ted Nichols, secretary; and Garland B. Garrett, Sr., treasurer. Perry S. Patterson, Washington and Pennsylvania attorney, represented the phonograph manufacturers.

MOA witnesses met in Washington the day before the hearing for preparation briefing by Nicholas Allen. On the day of the hearing president Collins was introduced to the House Subcommittee by Congressman James R. Mann of South Carolina, a member of the full Judiciary Committee. Collins then introduced all MOA witnesses. Patterson led off with a statement, followed by Russ Mawdsley who read the MOA statement.

(Witnesses then answered questions from congressmen on the subcommittee. The performing rights societies (ASCAP, BMI, SESAC) also testified and asked the Judiciary Committee to reinstate the provision for a Copyright Royalty Tribunal, one of the provisions that MOA defeated in the Senate last September.

Dynamo Presents 'Beat The Champs'

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. — The Dynamo Corporation has created and developed a unique promotional program in conjunction with their soccer table manufacturing activities. The company has a continuing philosophy of involvement with their product. "While others may see their responsibility ending after sales," said a company spokesman, "we feel that's where ours is just beginning."

A promotion of national proportions is now underway called "Beat The Champs." Two young Texans, Bobby Cook and Michael Weddendorf, Texas State Fussball Champs, have been put on the road by Dynamo with their expenses paid. Their job, if having a good time can be called a job, is to take on any and all challengers. Beat them two out of three games and a cash prize provided by Dynamo is the result. The program is a cooperative effort with the local distributor of the tables arranging locations, times, and placing advertising print and radio provided by Dynamo.

"The program is proving to be quite a success," and it appears that statement is backed up by the reports of standing-room-only in many places where the champs have appeared. It is stimulating interest in the game not only with disciples of the sport, it is giving a large audience its first look at coin soccer.

The company also provides other promotional aids featuring a character known as Dynamo Fats whose likeness is now on "T" shirts and is the author of a booklet called "How To Cheat At Fussball!", a tongue-in-cheek look at the game. "We're the only company who goes out of our way to provide promotion on location for operators. The result has been mutually beneficial for our distributors, the operators and Dynamo Corporation. And we're already working on new ideas in this same area," the spokesman said.

"Beat the Champs" may set a new direction for the entire industry but the word from Texas is that they plan to stay "one step ahead of competition."

EASTERN FLASHES

UBI (United Billiards), contrary to last week's typographical error, is in fact headed by Scott Daddis. Founder Art Daddis has plans of going into another phase of the coin industry, but no definite word on exactly what that might be is available as yet . . . Al Miniaci and his charming wife Rose out from Florida to southern California this week and next for vacation at LaCosta (Irv Sandler's home away from home) . . . Aaron Goldsmith, sales manager at Ebonite Billiards in Miami Lakes, is real pleased with sales on tables these days . . . Johnny Rafer, whose Imperial Billiards supplies a great bulk of pool table parts and supplies to the trade (operators, distribs and factories) also says table business in the country is good. The vast quantity of sticks, balls and chalk, etc. which John distributes is a good barometer on the business, and sales are good for Imperial . . . New digs for Cleveland Coin in both Columbus and in Cleveland itself soon to open. Boss Ron Gold jokes that one reason the places haven't opened yet is because the missus has been in charge of the decorating "and you know how the gals change their minds" . . . The brand new headquarters of the Mike Munves Corporation has officially opened at 310 Huguenot St. in New Rochelle. Phone number is 914/636-5000 . . . Heard that one of the main reasons the Munves operation moved was because they couldn't display the flipper games on their showroom floor; part of the whole New York City flipper mess that hopefully will be cleared up this year.

Dan Denman at Rowe International in Whippany real proud of how well the music line has been selling this spring and into the summer. Dan info's there are quite a number of distribs out there back-ordered on R-74 jukes and the factory in Grand Rapids is producing at peak capacity . . . For the past few months, Bob Rhinehart and other key execs of the Florida Amusement-Merchandising Assn. have been busy making arrangements for their 1975 Convention and Trade Show. Says Bob: "After careful consideration we chose the massive new Sheraton Towers Hotel located just south of Orlando off I-4 and the Florida turnpike." Next month's FAMA newsletter will provide members with more information on the Towers, plus a brochure and room reservations postcard. Said Bob:

"Our solicitations for exhibitors began just a few weeks ago and already the reservations and interest among the industry's manufacturers, distributors and suppliers is very good. Again this year we expect to have on hand every major coin operated machine manufacturer plus many service and supplies firms to show you how their line can be profitable to you. As before, there is no admission charge to the exhibit hall. If you can't come for the entire convention, at least mark your calendar now and plan to spend some time at the trade show.

"In addition to our outstanding speakers and trade show exhibitors, you can count on a convention program that will be fun and rewarding. Cocktail parties, doorprizes, banquet and dance all go into making a convention enjoyable and you can count on FAMA to come through for you."

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

A bill to impose a 4% sales tax on cigarettes is currently pending in the state legislature and area operators are very concerned about it, needless to say, since the existing 4% tax on collections is a disenough expense for them. The Wisconsin Music Merchants Association has been campaigning to reduce (or eliminate) the latter tax and will now expand its program, in cooperation with the Wisconsin vending group, to coordinate in an all out campaign.

BELATED BUT SINCERE congratulations to Jim and Belle Stansfield (Stansfield Vending) who celebrated an anniversary on June 5 — and June 6 — and June 7!estivities began at dinner with the Irv Beck's and Red Jacomet's in Trader Jake's, following which the couple flew to Omaha (with a stop in Chicago) for the COIN meeting where they were entertained most royally by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ellis, and in between time Jim managed to chair a WMMA board meeting in Brookfield. . . . On the subject of coin operated cocktail tables: Jim's attitude about these units is a very positive one. "We have a few out on location and are starting to make good progress with them," he said. "We are discovering that locations which had not previously been interested in the installation of coin-operated equipment are welcoming these tables; so all an operator has to do, actually, is assert himself a little bit and a whole new idea of income will open up."

Transatlantic Records/Heathside Pub. Announces Merger With Granada Music

Holding Company Formed For Wholly Owned Subsidiaries

HOLLYWOOD — Transatlantic Records of Great Britain, and its publishing wing Heathside, has merged with the Granada Music Group, announced Nat Joseph, founder and president of Transatlantic.

Transatlantic, formed in 1961 by Joseph, an English literature graduate from Cambridge, began its growth in Great Britain by importing Folkways and Conversaphone lines from the U.S. During its growth, Transatlantic began production of its own product, and became the second largest publicly owned record company in England. Originally engaged in a co-distribution system with EMI, Transatlantic formed its own independent distribution system in Great Britain.

Transatlantic currently handles American lines such as Nonesuch, Unicorn Classical, Bluenote, Milestone and Black Lion, and reported great successes with British folk group Pentangle and American pianist Joshua Rifkin, whose recordings of ragtime composer Scott Joplin reportedly sold over a quarter of a million units in England.

Under the terms of the merger with Granada, Transatlantic and Heathside control 25%, and Granada, who Transatlantic president Joseph describes as "one of the ledger giants of Great Britain and Europe" controls 75% interest. The Granada group, according to Joseph, who is currently visiting California, has adopted Transatlantic and Heathside as a leisure arm, in addition to owning the largest independently-owned television network in England. Granada additionally owns a paperback publishing company and the well-respected Novello classical publishing firm.

A new holding company has been formed to deal with the merger, and president Joseph has joined the board of directors of Novello per the terms of the agreement.

Joseph has currently been visiting in Los Angeles, developing Transatlantic's involvement with talent and songwriters in the North American market. "When a songwriter seeks a worldwide deal," said Joseph, "often it seems foolish for that artist to contract with his American record company for publishing. I had no idea the number of important, well-known American writers who have no British publishing deal. Especially in California, where so many of these writers live, I feel that more managers and artists will go with a firm that is more familiar with the British market. If that writer can earn collection and publishing royalties in England while sitting at home in California, especially if his record is being sold in Great Britain, it is a tremendous advantage for him."

Joseph can be reached at Transatlantic Records' London offices at 86 Mary Lebone High Street, London W1 M4AY.

Ricordi, VAAP Sign Historic Agreement In Soviet Union

MILAN — An historic agreement between Ricordi Music of Italy and VAAP, the Soviet copyright organization, was signed in Moscow recently, entrusting Ricordi as general agent for all Soviet repertoire in Italy. The contract, signed during a press reception, was executed by Ricordi managing directors Eugenio Clausetti and Guido Rignano, executive classical manager. Also in attendance from Ricordi was Mrs. Mimma Guastoni. VAAP was represented by its president Boris Pankin, department manager Alexander Lebedev and vice-manager Mrs. Julia Gaidoukowa.

"This agreement," said director Rignano, "is going to be an important first step for a wider diffusion of Soviet music in Italy, and at the same time represents a much deeper penetration of all Ricordi copyrights in the U.S.S.R. During our meetings in Moscow and Leningrad with VAAP's people and the representatives of the Ministry of Culture, the Composer's Union, and the Radio and Records Corporation, I received the impression that musical space will be discovered in both territories for our respective music."

Specific terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

GRC, Shinko Ink First Foreign Subpublishing Agreement

HOLLYWOOD — The Thevis Music Group, music publishing division of GRC, has inked its first foreign subpublishing agreement for representation of copyrights controlled by their five music publishing companies, with Shinko Music Publishing Co., Ltd., of Japan. The announcement was made last week by Michael Thevis, president of Thevis Music Group, and S. Kusano, Shinko president.

Thevis' catalogs (Act One, Moonsong, Silver Thervis, Grapevine and Nolanta) include copyrights on songs by Sammy Johns, Sam Dees, Mike Green, Clinton Moon and Byron Paul. Additionally, TMG recently acquired worldwide representation rights to the Joye Music (Australia) catalog, which features songs by Australian writers Kevin Johnson, Keith Jacobson, and Andy Gibb. These artists' compositions are included in the subpublishing pact with Shinko.

The first two major songs to be promoted in Japan by Shinko will be "Chevy Van" by Sammy Johns (GRC Records) and "I Don't Know What It Is But It Sure Is Funky," by Ripple. Shinko will work in conjuction with GRC's Japanese licensee, Nippon Columbia, on the project.

Negotiations with Shinko's S. Kusano and Joe Miyasaki were conducted by Bobby Weiss and One World of Music International licensing agency on behalf of Thevis, following a personal visit to Tokyo to observe the music publishing scene. Shinko was selected as a result of that visit. Weiss will be setting other foreign subpublishing agreements with contracts already having been submitted for review by various companies around the world. Announcements regarding these agreements are expected to be forthcoming shortly.

The Calgary branch will cover all areas west of Thunder Bay. Ron Sinclair, who has been responsible for the label's Manitoba branch operation, will extend his coverage to include the Saskatchewan territory.

Belgium

Bachman-Turner Overdrive visited Brussels' Morgan Studio for a press reception organized by Phonogram before their show in Forest National (Brussels). Their latest album is doing well as is their "Brave Belt" LP from 'old days.' Their "You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet" hit has also been included in the last "The Thirteen Best, Vol. VI" LP.

Other news — Much is expected of a new album by Ann Christy, one of the most popular female Belgian singers.

EMI commemorated Luis Mariano in May. Mariano died on July 14, 1970. Ted Sikkink left EMI as label manager of WEA. He moves to WEA France, and is replaced by Jean Marie Sohi, formerly promotion man of WEA. New WEA albums are by James Taylor, Souther Hillman Furay Band, Neil Young and The Eagles.

CBS reports great sales of the new Elton John LP "Captain Fantastic And The Brown Dirt Cowboy" on DJM.

BASF released the first album by soul artist Tony Sherman, who has a third hit for the moment with "Sing With Me." The album was well received and Sherman got the nickname of the "Dutch Stevie Wonder."

The Shocking Blue are finished. The group's farewell single is entitled "Gonna Sing My Song." It will be followed by a last album. The Shocking Blue once topped the USA charts with "Venus."

For Polydor 1975 will become the year of new labels. After State, Ring'O Records, Jet, Sussex, Spector Records and Capricorn Records the company now represents Jonathan King's UK Records label.

Columbia Closes B.C. Warehouse:

To Service Product From Calgary

TORONTO — Columbia Records has closed their Vancouver warehouse which the company opened in 1968. All product will now be stored in Calgary which will service all Canadian western provinces. Vancouver clients, according to Columbia, will be serviced through an air freight firm, Quick-A-Air, which has guaranteed 24-hour service.

In commenting on the closing, Bert Dunseith, Columbia's director of national sales, said, "The closing is strictly for inventory control purposes. We feel we can maintain a better inventory and still service our British Columbia customers as quickly as before."

Columbia now maintains three service centers across Canada — in Calgary, Montreal and Don Mills (Toronto). John Davies will continue to head the Calgary operation which is to be enlarged to twice its present size, according to the label.

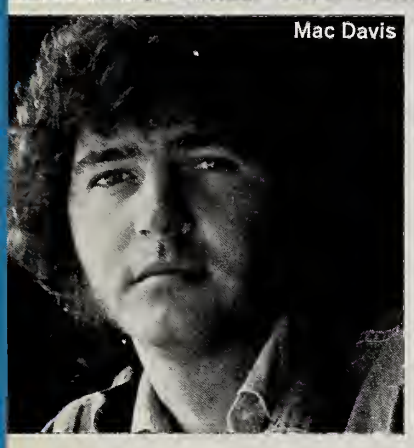
Work means play.

That's the simple philosophy of Columbia Records.



To evaluate our philosophy, look at this page today, and notice Earth, Wind & Fire, Aerosmith, Janis Ian, Mac Davis, Ramsey Lewis and Barbara Fairchild.

Then look at this page a year from now, and notice Kokomo, Journey, Pavlov's Dog, Ian Hunter and Willie Nelson.

Columbia Records... leaders in artist development.

July, 1975

Dear Friends,

1975 has thus far proved to be a very exciting year for the music industry and we are happy to report that we along with it, are continuing to make progress. The gloomy recession that hung over the industry like a dark cloud is lifting, and we look ahead with realistic optimism to the final six months of the year which, from all indications we have gotten, will be a time of increased sales and bright new artists.

The established "superstars" of our industry have made unprecedented achievements, in terms of sales and chart action, and the men who helm enlightened record companies have parlayed creativity and scientific management into profitable policies that will bear lush fruit as the year progresses.

Of course the industry must still deal objectively with the problems of pricing, returns and talent development, but it has met these challenges with energy and enthusiasm in the past, and will continue to do so with dignity in the coming months.

The 33rd Anniversary Edition of Cash Box is gratifying to all of us. Our efforts to reflect the progress of the most exciting industry in the world have been very well received and we are proud to be among those who have made contributions to it. The courageous foresignt and impressive list of achievements we have witnessed in 1975 so far leads us to believe that there is no limit to the ultimate capabilities of the music business. As we move towards greater prosperity we must hail the creative genius of the giants of the industry who have made it such a pleasure to be associated with them.

HOLLYWOOD-CASH BOX'S GREATEST HITS: THE EDITORS DISCUSS THEIR '75 FAVES

PHIL ALEXANDER

This year's answer to the age-old question "Who's at number one?" yielded some interesting replies, among them David Bowie, Ringo Starr, Ace, Linda Ronstadt, Ozark Mountain Daredevils, Earth Wind and Fire, Neil Sedaka and Paul Anka. And to the unsung heroes of the record business, musicians in basement studios sweating out the fifteenth take on their first demo, artists whose disks provide the enthusiasm and vital spark that make the industry an exciting place to make a living, a tip of the Cash Box hat. For those people, the relative ease of an Elton John breaking an LP onto number one the first week out remains an elusive, unbelievable dream. In the end, everyone's a superstar.

This year has produced brilliant disks that account for any peculiarities in my top choices. Musical and studio artistry are the bottom line in determining favorites, and year's not over yet!

BEST OF THE NEW-IES

BEST NEW GROUP — From the virtual obscurity of San Pedro, California has come a group that combines the musical virtuosity of Emerson, Lake, & Palmer, the lyrical and vocal abilities of Yes, and a rhythmic sensitivity that rivals the complexities of a Ravi Shankar! Twentieth Century's Ambosia are innovators in every sense, drawing on the talents of novelist Kurt Vonnegut, Jr., for their spectacular "Nice, Nice, Very Nice." An apt description of their music!

Janis Ian

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — After a highly successful, albeit faceless career creating some of America's best-known commercial jingles, Barry Manilow has broken out with two major hit singles, "Mandy" and "It's A Miracle," and two top chart LPs. Barry posseses a high-energy on-stage charisma and compositional genius that makes him one of the freshest, brightest prospects on the music scene today. Sing it, Barry!

Ambrosia

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — Seven years have passed since Leonard Bernstein proclaimed Janis Ian's "Society's Child" as one of the most important pop records ever written. From that stigma of success at fifteen has emerged a sensitive woman, now 23, with an album and single for Columbia that makes her period of self-imposed musical abstinence meaningful. We can expect many good things to come from Janis.

Barry Manilow

JESS LEVITT

This past year continues to show a very strong trend toward disco and r&b flavored records. Middle of the road pop is still strong but danceable music is making strong in-roads into the pop charts. Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes are leading the way followed closely by Earth, Wind & Fire and Kool & The Gang. This was also the year of comeback artists with Paul Anka, Neil Sedaka and Frankie Valli having big singles.

Electronic jazz broke out big this year with Chick Corea, Billy Cobham and Herbie Hancock coming out with fine LP's. Probably the most interesting new trend on the pop scene has been the re-birth of acoustic jazz. Artists like Grover Washington, Jr., George Benson, Les McCann, Herbie Mann, Stanley Turrentine and Eddie Harris are gaining more widespread acclaim with pop audiences.

BEST OF THE NEW-IES

BEST NEW GROUP — There were many new hot groups this past year, but A&M's Supertramp from England seem destined to stardom if their "Crime of the Century" is any indication. With tasty lyrics and polyrhymic music this group is headed for bigger and better things and should join the ranks of England's other superstars like the Moody Blues, Yes, Pink Floyd, and Genesis very quickly.

Phoebe Snow

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — Learning to play the guitar to impress a boy she had a crush on has brought Phoebe Snow to the top. With her LP on Shelter, Phoebe possesses a clear shining jazz-blues voice that sends tingles up spines. It no wonder that her LP Phoebe Snow and the single, "Poetry Man," went gold because, she may soon have more gold than Fort Knox.

Supertramp

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — This is another hard choice but Major Harris seems the one who'll break out and become one artist with a very bright future in show business. Formerly with the Delfonics, the Major has been burning up the charts with his hit single, "Love Won't Let Me Wait" on Atlantic from his LP "My Way." The Major will be a major star.

HOLLYWOOD-CASH BOX'S GREATEST HITS: THE EDITORS DISCUSS THEIR '75 FAVES

MARC SHAPIRO

The last six months have been, with few exceptions, predictable ones, with major artists doing pretty much what was expected of them in terms of superior product. But lost in the rush to praise music vets have been the lesser known acts who have turned out music that, is equal, if not superior to music being done by superstar acts.

This fact is duly noted in top album picks as bands like Stray Dog, Pavlov's Dog and Masters Of The Airwaves proved more than worthy of their lofty positions. Another somewhat unusual occurrence was the release of the now defunct Free's greatest hits. The album, which contains some of the rawest rock and blues ever recorded, is easily the past six month's most together package.

This last half year showed the long expected emergence of Linda Ronstadt as one of the premiere singers as her single "You're No Good" and album "Heart Like A Wheel" combine as two of the best recorded listens in many a moon.

1. Best Of Free — Free — A&M

BEST OF THE NEW-IES

BEST NEW GROUP — Pavlov's Dog, spawn of a St. Louis music winter, survived a mid-season switch of labels to turn in an artistic ode to popular music in the guise of their debut album "Pampered Menial." The band showcased, in their, thus far, brief existence, an almost Picasso-like care in handling of their music as David Surkamp's trilling vocals and the sheer strength of the individual musicians carried them to new heights in the upper reaches of popular. 1975 brings forth Pavlov's Dog; man's musical best friend.

Phoebe Snow

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — The past six months produced a classic ode to the open road in "Chevy Van" by Sammy Johns. Johns, a songwriter of some note, writes meticulous country tinged songs that succeed outside of that rigid confinement of the genre by a controlled sparseness of music and his to the point lyricism. Make no bones about it, "Chevy Van" is definitely not a one-shot. Talent like Sammy Johns doesn't run out of gas that quickly.

Pavlov's Dog

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — Phoebe Snow easily outdistanced the rest of the gals' music pack with her debut Shelter LP "Phoebe Snow" and a classic singles celebration to laidback, "Poetry Man." The many offshots of her music have a penetrating inroad to the mind. It's a music that touches the emotions; leaving a good feeling where there was one and performing a soothing calm of areas of hurt. 1975, the year it Phoebe snowed musical parade.

STEPHEN PEEPLES

Those of us who like country redneck rock and southern fried boogie owe a great deal to artists like Waylon, Merle, The Allman Bros. and record companies like Capricorn, Melodyland, UA and 20th (to name a few) for helping to knock down the barriers that had previously restricted such music to regional (as well as chart) boundaries. This trailblazing has been continued and amplified by the Marshall Tucker Band with their "Where We All Began" LP. From rock 'n' roll to bluegrass to blues and jazz and all else betwixt and between, these guys do it all blending precision with raw southern energy.

The next couple of years we will see many more of these antiquated conceptual barriers bite the dust. "Crossing over" will hopefully come to be a forgotten concept, because good music knows no bounds except those that exist in our minds.

BEST OF THE NEW-IES

BEST NEW GROUP — Although Scott and members of the Express have been accomplished studio musicians around the L.A. area for several years, this year marked the assembly of Tom Scott and the L.A. Express as an entity. The band was put together to back Joni Mitchell's summer 1974 tour; from there it was only a natural step for them to tour by themselves. After SRO appearances on both coasts, and two highly acclaimed albums, I look forward to a continued evolution of the energy and style they brought to the fore this year.

Jessi Colter

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — Motown launched its country label (Melodyland) in the past year with T.G. Sheppard's fine debut album from which the single "Tryin' To Beat The Morning Home" was released. The relationship has been advantageous to all concerned, and most especially for Sheppard, who called on many years of experience in different phases of the music business to create the album. After his first single release, "Devil In The Bottle," his followup LP definitely establishes T.G. Sheppard as the best emerging new artist of the year.

Tom Scott & The L.A. Express

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — Co-produced by husband Waylon Jennings, Jessi Colter shines as do the stars. In addition to being physically beautiful, Jessi's radiance is laced throughout her life and music in every direction possible, as clearly shown in her chart-topping debut LP on Capitol "I'm Jessi Colter" and the single "I'm Not Lisa" from that LP. Her appeal knows no demographic or chart boundaries because her music is accessible to people in all phases of life and love. She has a great deal of faith in herself which I know will manifest itself in many positive ways in the year to come.

BOX That Counts"

THE CASH B

VOLUME XV

JUNE 19, 1954

The Gaylords, one of musicdom's hottest vocal groups, toast their hit Mercury record, "Isle Of Capri", as lovely Kay Reid pours the wine. Occasion was a party at Theodore's Restaurant welcoming the boys to New York. Coming on top of their latest hit, "From The Vine Came The Grape", "Capri" sends the combo into the consistent hit selling class. From left to right, The Gaylords are comprised of Burt Bonaldi, Bill Christ, and Don Rea.

Dawn turns us on.

Tony Orlando & Dawn seem to turn on their fans as easily as they turn on their Shure sound equipment. From Vegas show palaces to television sound stages, this pulsating trio has a rare knack for making the audience part of their scintillating performances. And for good reason: with over 60 million records sold between them, Tony, Telma and Joyce were true professionals even before they joined talents for the Dawn superhits. Their show-biz savvy extends to their choice of Shure microphones and Shure Vocal Master sound systems, too. And that turns us on.

The Motown Sounds:

You know about the Motown Sound. It began an entire generation of music. Well, times change and one generation leads to another. And just in case you haven't noticed, there's now more than one Motown Sound.
May we present The Motown Sounds.
You'll find dazzling new editions by Motown greats like The Jackson Five, The Supremes, Smokey Robinson, and Eddie Kendricks. You'll find music to make you dance by the ingenious Willie Hutch and the ever-inventive Commodores. You'll find exciting new energies like Yvonne Fair. Brilliant new concepts like the Disc-O-Tech Series that brings instant, non-stop disco music anywhere there's a turntable. And you'll find The Motown Country Way, with the premiere album releases by T.G. ("Devil In The Bottle," "Tryin' To Beat The Morning Home") Sheppard on our Melodyland label. You'll find an entirely new, super hot Rare Earth. You'll find Banco from Italy on our Manticore label--one of the most bizarre, surreal, beautifully synthesized musical visions of our time. You'll even find Cooley High, the happiest motion picture soundtrack event of the year.

NEW YORK -CASH BOX'S GREATEST HITS: THE EDITORS DISCUSS THEIR '75 FAVES

BARRY TAYLOR

The blossoming success of jazz tinged rock acts and rock infected jazz groups has been noted repeatedly on these pages. What hasn't been emphasized however, is the growing market for young, true-jazz musicians and the proliferation of jazz labels. Companies like Arista, ECM, and the recently created Horizon Records have found commercial acceptance for artists like Dave Leibman, Cecil Taylor, Gary Burton, and Randy Weston. These talents serve as a bridge connecting the young to the more traditional bop, swing and big band styles and the free, abstract developments of the 60s' and 70s'.

BEST OF THE NEW-IES

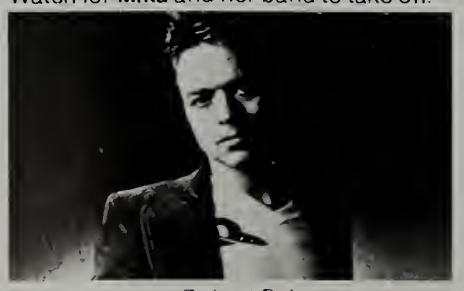
Months after its initial release, "Magic," Pilot's debut U.S. single has begun to shoot up the charts. The group has already followed up the song in England with two more successes, relying on strong, endearing melodies and exuberant harmonies. Look for their fresh, vibrant sound to be a mainstay on the charts in the coming months.

Pilot

Mika

BEST NEW FEMALE VOCALIST — People have been waiting for a new slant on rock (sic) for years. While "Jap rock" may not exactly be the harbinger of things to come, Mika has made a convincing and accessible US debut. The music is electric and uncompromisingly Western while the Japanese lyrics do not sound unlike Sparks or about 60% of the groups currently making rock records. Watch for Mika and her band to take off.

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — Once a member of the group Vinegar Joe along with Elkie Brooks and Peter Gage, Robert Palmer made his solo bow about two months ago with the album, "Sneakin' Sally Through The Alley." Backed by the redoubtable Meters (and Little Feat on one track), Robert has made an exceptionally promising and extremely musical debut.



Robert Palmer

BOB KAUS

As rock music continues to absorb more sophisticated elements of other styles, strict style categorization will continue to break down. Especially significant will be those groups who have and will adopt much from avant-garde and electronic "serious" composition. While the likes of Pink Floyd and King Crimson have been using such elements for years, the new wave of primarily European groups of this genre (i.e. Tangerine Dream, Kraftwerk) have been gradually garnering more acceptance for forms which are much closer to true "serious" music. Even the originals themselves, in the works of such composers as Terry Riley and John Cage, have been experiencing a steady rise in mass popularity. It is clear that in the very near future both the artist adaptation of and the audience acceptance of more advanced sounds will play a growing part in the listening habits of a wider public.

SINGLES

1. Killer Queen — Queen — Elektra
2. Superman — Les Variations — Buddah
3. Magic — Pilot — EMI/Capitol
4. Show Me The Way — Peter Frampton — A&M
5. Trampled Underfoot — Led Zeppelin — Swan Song
6. Bloody Well Right — Supertramp — A&M
7. Movin' On — Bad Company — Swan Song
8. Young Americans — David Bowie — RCA
9. Lopsy Lu — Stanley Clarke — Nemperor
10. Jive Talkin' — Bee Gees — RSO

ALBUMS

10. Star's End — David Bedford — Virgin

BEST OF THE NEW-IES:

BEST NEW GROUP — While not even committed to vinyl at this writing, the newly-formed Jack Bruce Band promises to be one of the most exciting and important developments in recent memory. The combination of ex-Stonesman Mick Taylor and jazz person Carla Bley with Bruce's superlative writing/performing talents adds up to the rare true supergroup.

Jack Bruce Band

Russ Ballard

BEST NEW MALE ARTIST — While far from new on the scene, having been a founding member of Argent, Russ Ballard struck out on his own in early '75. With one Epic LP under his belt that features fine tunes and excellent vocals and guitarmanship, look for the development of this Englishman into a fine pop artist in his own right.

BEST NEW FEMALE ARTIST — Coming from a strong background in blues and country, Emmylou Harris' excellent first Reprise LP, "Pieces Of The Sky," shows rare vocal quality and control. It is not difficult to see her rapid progression into being a major new artist in the months ahead.

JAPAN: THE PAST SIX MONTHS

This is the general summary for Japan's music industries for about six months (from the end of last year to May 1975).

According to a survey by the Cash Box Tokyo office, total sales of Japan's main 14 record and tape manufacturers which are affiliated with the "Japan Phonogram Record Association" (JPRA) have shown only a small increase for this term (Oct. 1974 to Mar. 1975) in comparison with the previous term and the same term of the previous year. This rate of increase was a remarkable decrease as compared with the same term of the previous year. The overall slump in Japan's general economy seemed to bring with it unfavourable results to the music industries in this country. Victor-Musical-Industries Co., Ltd., Nippon Columbia, Toshiba-EMI, King Records, Teichiku Records, Polydor, Crown Records, Tokuma-Ongakusangyo, K.K. CBS-Sony, Nippon Phonogram, K.K. Canyon Record, Toho Records, Warner-Pioneer, the Record-Jigyo-Bu of Trio K.K. are included among the main 14 record manufacturers of Japan.

Gross sales of Japan's main 14 record manufacturers this term were 76,446,240,000 yen ($254,820,000) 11% more than the previous term of 68,761,990,000 yen and 10% more than the same term of the previous year (69,455,940,000 yen). Such a small rate of increase has never appeared in Japan's music industries during the recent past. For instance, the second half term of 1973 was 25% more than the previous term and 27% more than the same term of its previous year. As we can see from this, Japan's music industries have enjoyed a considerable increase over 20% in last several terms. The music-industries of this country have submitted themselves tamely to the low rate of increase which has not appeared for some years. The reasons for such depression were, we can say, 1) a tight-money policy by the government, 2) the depression-mood has penetrated into every section of national-economy in this country, 3) the decline of Japanese consumer buying power.

Among the gross sales of this term, disk accounted for 62,846,630,000 yen, 12% more than the previous term and 11% more than the same term of the previous year. Music-tape sold 13,599,610,000 yen, 6% more than both the previous term and the same term of the previous year. Of these two categories, the stagnant state of music-tape is prominent. In terms of Japan's music vs. international-music, the former was 47,476,080,000 yen, 10% more than the previous period and 8% more than the same term of the previous year. On the other hand, international-music was 28,970,160,000 yen, 13% more than both the previous term and the same term of the previous year.

Among the main 14 manufacturers, 13 companies (except Warner-Pioneer) have shown more sales than the previous term. This phenomena was due to the fact that this term included special sales seasons for the end and beginning of the year. The high-growth in comparison with the previous term was shown among four labels. Teichiku: 40%, Polydor and Crown: 36% Tokuma: 26%. These positive results by four companies, generally speaking, were due mainly to hits of "Enka" (Japan's traditional popular songs), folk songs and "new music." However, no major hits of either Japan's music or international-music in this period (beside the general economic depression) have given impetus to the increase in sales.

The main artists who have contributed to increased sales were as follows. New faces: Mineko Nishikawa (Victor), Midori Nishikawa (Tokuma), Ichiro & Sakura (Polydor) and Masatoshi Nakamura (Columbia). Existing artists: Aki Yashiro (Teichiku), Hiroshi Itsuki (Tokuma), Shinyichi Mori (Victor). Folk: Yoosui Inouye, Takuro Yoshida, Kaze. Young artists: Hideki Saijo, Goro Noguchi, Hiromi Goh, Momoe Yamaguchi, Junko Sakurada, Masako Mori and Kaguya-Hime.

At the same time, international music has maintained a low sales profile as in the past several terms. The Carpenters were very prominent among high-selling international artists in this period followed by Stevie Wonder, The Three Degrees, The Commodores and Carl Douglas.

"New music" as a fresh genre in this term was noticeable. "New music" releases by Crown and Tokuma have contributed to their sales pictures, and other manufacturers are anxious to follow these two labels' examples in the future.

The withdrawal of CBS-Sony from Japan Phonograph Record Association (JPRA) cannot be disregarded as a big news story of this term. This trouble has not yet been settled as of the end of May. The establishment of a new company by singers Yoosuyi Inouye and Takuro Yoshida to whom CBS-Sony had contracted for a long time was a direct reason for the withdrawal of CBS-Sony from JPRA. By the way, these two folk singers were very popular in Japan thereby being a main contributor to the company. CBS-Sony has asked JPRA to take some action against the new company to distribute the singers' product.

Competition among dealers is growing progressively more severe. The confrontation between large scale dealers and small shops has been aggravated regarding the question of discount sales.

Additionally, the prices of singles and LP's in Japan have been left stable for a long period and revisions of these prices cannot be expected in the near future. With these conditions and the inactivity of the general economy, Japan's manufacturers and dealers look to the future with increased concern and seriousness, anxious for an end of the uncertainty that now characzes the world's second largest record market.

not prepared to use efficiently other promo channels — newspapers, magazines, trade papers, mail promo — because they had relied heavily on radio and TV. The reaction to the 75% decree was the opening of new TV music programs, partially financed by the record companies, but this may prove expensive or not so effective as ratio.

For small companies and indie producers, the question is even hader to answer, since it is difficult for them to battle against the giants for the possession of air time in the 25% remaining for pop music. Tango and folk product is easier to promote, but commercial results are uncertain.

SALES:

As we commented before, sales figures were limited by production more than by demand. Thus, the level established for the 1973/74 period wasn't surpassed in the desired measure, although the sales volume was the biggest in the history of the industry: about $60 million dollars, with a single costing less than a dollar and an LP priced around $4.

For the future, it is difficult to judge the level of sales; to maintain it, it will be necessary to solve production problems and continue attracting buyers. If one of these points fail, it may turn 1975/76 into a hard year for the record trade.

'75 is going to be the record year that '74 was!

1974 was the year that saw the Pye records group become a major power in the international singles market.

Sweet Sensation and Carl Douglas gave us world-wide smash hits while Barry White, B.T Express and the Javells featuring Nosmo King brought us unrivalled UK chart success — not to mention the numerous top twenty entries we had with both singles and albums worldwide.

1975 will be better still with our collection of hit makers already increased with the signing of Frankie Vaughan, Sacha Distel, Phil Everly, Caterina Valente, McKendree Spring, Stray and Jimmy Helms.

Other exciting developments include the setting up of ATV Records in America and VIP Records in Holland which further established us as a World Music Power.

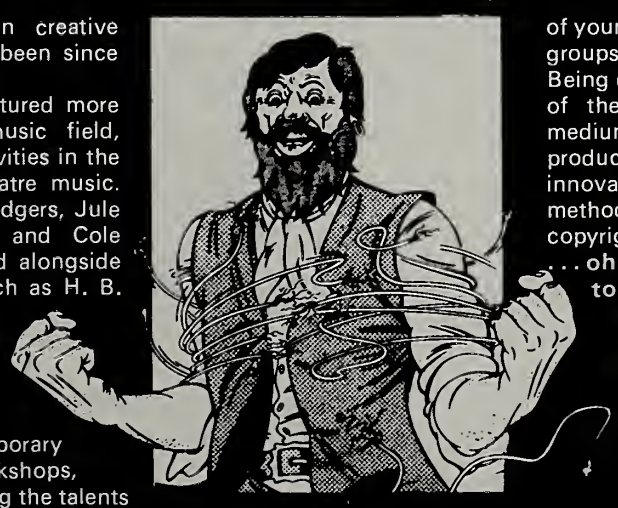
We've not been marking time

The Giant's Wakin' Up



We're actively involved in creative music management. Have been since 1811.
Recently Chappell has ventured more into the contemporary music field, without interruption of activities in the areas of standard and theatre music. Writers such as Richard Rodgers, Jule Styne, George Gershwin and Cole Porter are lovingly nurtured alongside our younger associates such as H. B. Barnum, Paul Williams, The Osmonds, and Darryl Hall & John Oates.
We're internationally committed to the acquisition and development of contemporary product via our music workshops, encouraging and supporting the talents of young writers, singers, lyricists and groups.
Being deeply involved with the growth of the music industry through the medium of printed music, records, stage production, films, and television, each innovation has seen us adapt our methods of operation to maximise the copyrights which we own or administer
. . . oh yes, we still believe you have to 'work' a copyright.

PCM RECORDING
MS MASTER SONIC
NON-DISTORTION CUTTING
HALF SPEED CUTTING

Challenge!
Sound to be unique

With the Pulse Code Modulation P.C.M.-method used in space communication electronics sound waves are converted into a pulse code recording. So there's no distortion, noise, wow and flutter. The P.C.M.-method developed by NIPPON COLUMBIA has been combined with our patented half speed cutting and non-distortion cutting methods to produce our popular Master Sonic records of even higher quality.
In autumn in 1974, Nippon Columbia developed compact P.C.M. recording machine and successfully achieved beautiful recordings in France and German which are highly appraised by leading recording engineer in Europe. We have had many project to make fantastic recordings with world wide artists using the reliable P.C.M. recording machine.

ARGENTINA: THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS

One year ago we reported that an acute shortage of vinyl — as it was happening or had happened in most other markets of the world — appeared to be the biggest problem of the local record industry. We also pointed that an increase of the buying power among customers had depleted stocks at diskeries and retailers, while price-fixing controls allured buyers to the stores but prevented record companies from profiting strongly from the bonanza.

As it happened, the record industry, through its Chamber of Producers, managed to get through a complicated procedure and imported the quantities of vinyl needed for pressing the requested records. But then appeared the new problem: simply, record plants were unable to press the amounts required by customers, and the shortage continued, more or less at the same level. This has been the mood during these past twelve months; now the industry is facing a reduction in sales levels, due to inflation, severe devaluation of the Argentine currency and economic uncertainty.

Of course, the record companies reacted to the pressing shortage through the blueprinting of new factories and enlargement of the existing facilities, but it could happen that these projects will arrive late for the bonanza and that the trade will face overcapacity. The companies most affected by the shortage were those without plants and in the middle-size range: Microfon, Sicamericana and Parnaso were unable to ship thousands of singles and LP's a week. Small companies were also affected, and some of them limited the release of new product to one or two albums a month, and even less. Some new companies had to postpone the date of their initial releases due to the same reasons, while even those with their own pressing plants — EMI, RCA, CBS — had at certain times between 30 and 40% of their catalog offstock.

According to the plans made available to the press, Parnaso is building its own plant, while Microfon has entered a society with an existing independent factory, to increase its output, and EMI is planning a 55% percent increase in production between 1975 and 1977. At least two other pressing plants are mentioned to be in process of building, one of them in the city of Cordoba, which would mean the establishment of record companies or record-producing centers there; at the moment, all the major diskeries operate from Buenos Aires.

Local artists, arrangers and independent producers were also affected by the situation, since the reduction in releases implied also a cut in recording sessions; at the same time, the companies preferred the outing of waxings that gave them the maximum sales-earnings ratio. This is easy to understand, considering that their limited output has been fully sold in a matter of hours, but they had no chances to increase it.

RECORD COMPANIES:

The most interesting event of the year is the announced opening of Discos TK, a company formed by former executives of CBS Hugo Piombi and Ricardo Cabrera. Although the company is relesing its product only in the second half of 1975, it appears as a strong bet for the country music market, and is seeking catalogs for representation. It has also formed a publishing house, also to be operated soon.

Fernando Falcon, after a year of distribution of his Disfal records by Parnaso, established his own distribution facilities and started a new label, Nivel, which will be devoted to top level local production. Falcon inked Marcelo Rey as sales and promotion manager of the company.

It is also understood that record producer Ricardo Kleinman and US record man Jerry Masucci, head of Fania, will open Fania Argentina later this year. Kleinman has been associated as a producer with several labels in the past, and it seems that he will continue this relation in the future, in spite of the new company.

PUBLISHERS:

This field has shown few changes during the past months, and continues working at the shade of the major record companies, meaning that the promotional force they had ten years ago — being capable of producing a hit by themselves — has but disappeared. The fact that many leading composers — Palito Ortega, Sandro, Francis Smith and now Juan Marcelo — have their own pubberies has led the big houses to devote efforts to the representation of foreign catalogs and to attract new authors, but the promotional force is left to the record companies.

During the past year, the pubbery owned by Record Parnaso has made strong progress, while the main organizations (Relay, owned by RCA; Melograf, by CBS; MAI, by EMI and Korn, by Intersong) have had a good year, but nothing special. The appearance of the "cuartetos" music in the province of Cordoba, with a strong rhythmical structure and big dance party attendance has given a special colour to their work, resulting in less attention paid to pop and beat local composers by all the pubbery trade.

INDEPENDENT PRODUCERS:

Due to the reasons explained above, it has been a bad year for anybody not owning a pressing plant or being near one. Indie producers have especially sensed this, and had to delay the release of their product, through record companies, or try to seek another channel. The most important organization in this field is the one headed by Francis Smith, with about a dozen artists recording through different companies. Teen chanter and composer Rabito has also been busy producing records, but the most successful one, in terms of sales, has been Ricardo Kleinman, with Sabu, Dany, Cacho Castana and several others. Kleinman has been a force in this field since about ten years ago, when he started a highly rated radio program, "Modart en la Noche."

Producers are also troubled by the lack of radio time for the promotion of their product, especially since the ruling of a 75% slice of air time that must be devoted to tango, folk and Latin American music. Under these circumstances, it is very difficult to build a new artists, mainly because all the trade is heavily radio-oriented.

PROMOTION:

To the passing of a law turning to the state several TV channels, a move that we commented last year, the 75% of tango, folk and Latin American music has added more rigid control over the air waves. Local pop composers are worried because the decree does not protect them; in fact, an Agentine pop song is less protected than a Brazilian one. Disk jockeys and radio programmers have also disagreed with the measure, but it has remained firm in spite of the complaints.

Unluckily, the record companies are

CASH BOX 33rd ANNIVERSARY EDITION 1975-76

from the desk of . . .

GEORGE ALBERT

OF

Dear Friends:

Many profound changes have taken place in the coin machine industry this closing fiscal year . . . changes which present a serious challenge to the professionals in this business . . . changes that, improperly met, could cripple many veterans.

Without a doubt, the cronic problem of direct selling to locations is now an open wound, perhaps as a result of the general public's growing awareness of the industry and its machines . . . certainly as a result of many "mom and pop" styled factory and distribution companies around today who see little difference between the operator and the location as its customer.

Equally unsettling have been the reports of soft collections during the first six months of 1975, largely due to the economic condition in the land. Gratefully, collections have begun picking up nicely the last few weeks, perhaps dignifying President Ford's statement that the recession is winding down.

In the face of all this, the rank and file operator is becoming more "modern" in his business approach. There's no more "reckless" shotgunning of machines all over the place, and "worry about the bills later." There's not many more lopsided commissions being given out to locations just to beat out a competitor. The loans and bonuses are even getting tighter.

So, those good things are happening in the face of the bad. It's a tempering process which will steel-up those who prevail and eliminate those who can't cut the mustard.

One of the tools of the coin machine professional is this Directory . . . the result of many, many weeks of work by our staff. I present it to you all with pride and I thank you again for permitting us to serve.

Quality is really the name of our game.

Fred and Flora have been playing Flim Flam for more than two years, and a few people have tried to pull a fast one on them.
Imitation Flim Flam Video Game Tables have sprung up, all trying to fool the Freds and Floras into believing that these imitators are the same as Flim Flam.

But Fred and Flora found out the difference. "They can copy the table," said Flora, "and they can copy the joystick, but they don't copy the quality."

"Yep," said Fred.

"I'll admit," says Flora, "we tried some of the imposters, but Fred and I get tired of all the interruptions –those darn service calls keep us from playing."

"Yep," says Fred.

So, as all the imitators began to fail, Fred and Flora stuck with Flim Flam. And to the imitators, thank you...thank you for helping us to prove to all the Freds and Floras that Flim Flam is a game of fun and quality. After all, what other video game table has a 24 month (or 24,000 players—whichever comes first) warranty on all computer boards?

Some Flim Flam features:

- Finest components available
- Expert, pro and novice paddle sizes
- Weighs only 130 lbs.
- 2, 3 or 4 player positions
- And of course, virtually no service calls
- (If you do enjoy lots of friendly service calls, and don't care about quality, call us anyway, and we'll give you the names of the imitators.)

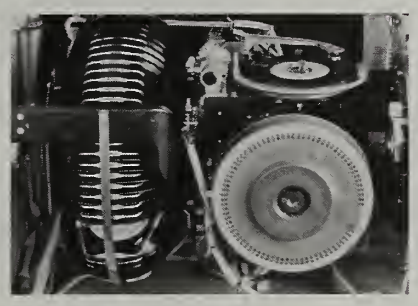
Import/export our speciality

How to build an unstoppable machine.



For years we've been building jukeboxes that run and run and run without stopping. Nobody else seems to be able to do it. So this year, we thought we'd tell you how.

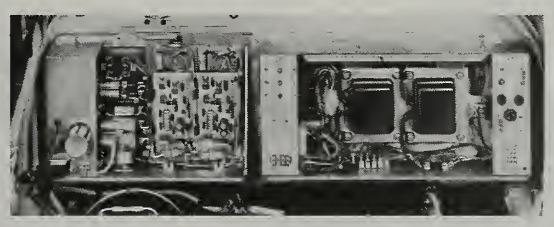
Start with an extremely durable, dependable record changer. Like our famous Rock-Ola Revolving Record Magazine. Add a 100-watt-output amplifier, to provide enough power for any location. Give it 100% solid-state circuitry for reliability. Use plug-in circuit boards for easy maintenance.

Protect the mechanism from overheating and overloading by installing sensing devices that shut down the machine at the first hint of trouble.

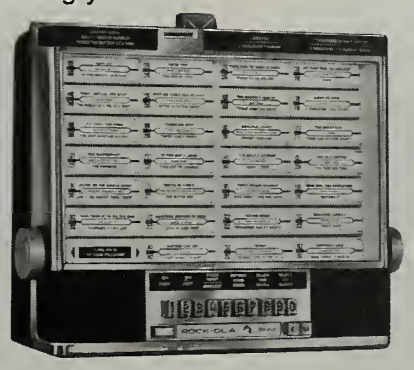
They make sure small problems never get to be big ones. And instead of dirty, flow-through air vents, equip your machine with vanes that conduct heat through the walls, to give you a totally-sealed cabinet.

Think that was hard? Try installing your basic mechanism in a cabinet that is both fantastically attractive—and so rugged it'll endure almost any abuse. A cabinet like ours.

For most locations, we build a dynamic, brightly-colored cantilevered cabinet that's so attention-getting it pulls in customers non-stop. We make it easy to operate by placing all selection controls together in a single strip at eye level across the program panel. And we make sure every component is readily accessible by allowing the entire top and front of the machine to swing wide open. We give it a 160-selection capacity, and call it the Model 460. Or we trim 7 inches off the sides, give it 100 selections, and it's the Model 459—perfect for places where space is limited. For sophisticated locations, we surround our unstoppable mechanism with a long, low polished-wood-look cabinet, executed in burn-proof polyester. We give it a full-size lid that opens to reveal a new Customer Convenience Center. And we give the front elegant cathedral-look speaker grilles that complement any decor. Then we add a full-color, framed painting inside the lid and call the machine the Model 456. It too handles 160 selections. And this year, every part on the 456 is interchangeable with those on our other models—eliminating stock problems.



Just having unstoppable jukeboxes isn't enough. You need wallboxes that are attractive, functional, and easy to operate. Like our Model 506 Wallbox. It's pageless—just give the triangular program holders a turn or two, and make a selection. The 506 coordinates with any Rock-Ola, old or new.



So that's it. Now you can build your own unstoppable machine. One so rugged, it'll take any punishment. Yet so attractive, it'll make non-stop profits. But now that you know how—why bother? After all, we've got three unstoppable Rock-Ola's. And one of them is just right for you.

There's no stopping Rock-Ola.

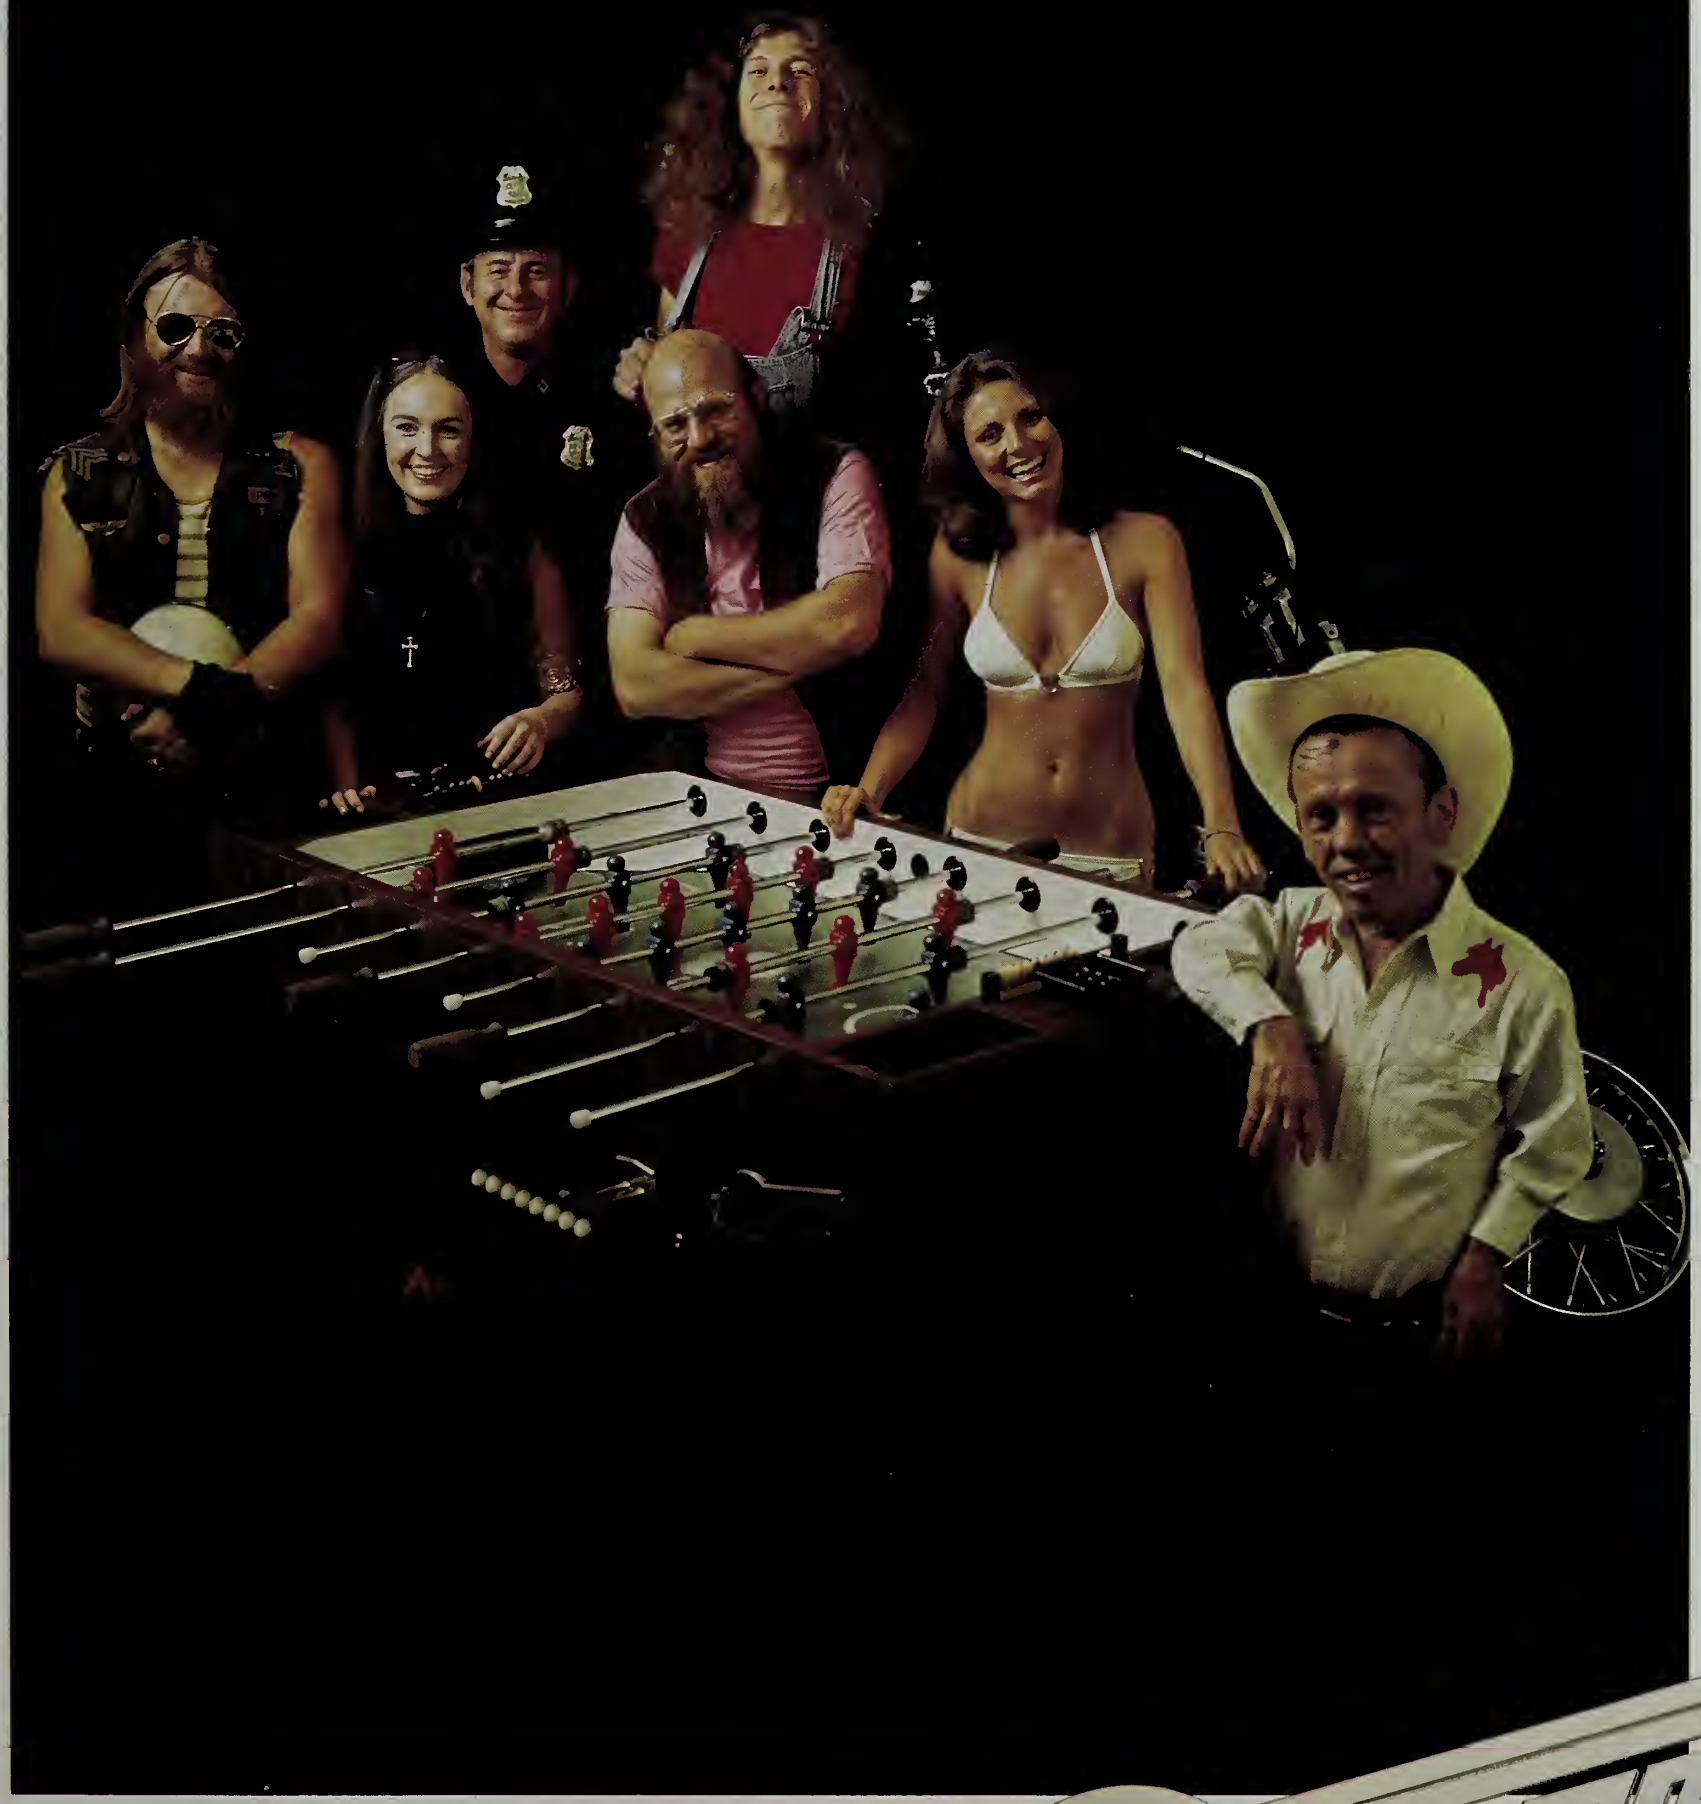
SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY!



Just look around. Whether you're a distributor, operator or player you know when you see 350 pounds of solid, well designed, low maintenance fussball tables, you're seeing a product that's good for everybody. That's the only way we build them at Dynamo: strong as a gorilla with quality control as rigid as the law, and lines as pleasing as the feminine form. And you're also looking at one of the highest profit potentials you can handle in the industry. That's because we keep costs way down so your profits can stand tall!

Sure, everyone is different. But there's one thing you can always count on being the same, month after month and year after year and that's Dynamo quality. And that's something for everybody!

You Asked For It!

(The New Rowe AMI Jukeboxes Were Your Idea)

Available with True QUAD SOUND

You may not know it, but you designed the stunning Rowe AMI Phonographs.

We felt there was a better way than asking our designers to guess what people wanted in a jukebox. There was. We simply listened to our customers.

Rowe has a program that feeds continuous grassroots opinion back to Rowe decision makers. Since you, the operator, told us what will sell, we know, in advance, that these machines will be successful for you.

The result is what people are asking for these days; the best of tradition and today. From the contemporary computer look above to the ageless wood below, everything about them assures, excites, reassures, delights. Quality in the fine professional attention to detail throughout. Stability in the definite horizontal thrust of the lines. Bold three dimensional thrust in the illuminated side panels. Notice too, how the visual interest is concentrated above, close to head level, while the graphics are quiet and conservative below.

And what sound! Vibrant. Alive. Rowe "Stereo Round"® surrounds you with it. Superior stereo from any listening position.

By the way, these are the only 200 selection jukeboxes on the market...they have a solid state credit unit, with a five year warranty, that permits almost infinite price and bonus capability...and they're the only ones giving you a choice of design to suit the location.

Built with famous Rowe AMI quality and "Human Engineering" for easiest serviceability...longest life and durability backed by a full five year warranty.

Rowe AMI Phonographs . . . no wonder we call them "Great Performers."

See Them . . . Hear Them . . . Watch Them Perform

Do you have old video games?
Pong

Gentlemen... Start your profits!

... with INDY 800, the new 8 player, color version of the greatest money making video driving game ever.
New crowd gathering features. Now up to 8 players (or any combination) can drive the Big One. Realistic Formula I action, the thrill of wheel-to-wheel competition, the whine of engines, and a controlled skid feature add up to big crowds and repeat play.

Other track features include a 25" Durastress™ tested color monitor—8 different colored cars race the clock. Individual score indicators match colors of cars. Each player has his (or her) own horn and rugged all-steel foot pedals for gas and brakes.
The Winner's Circle. Points are scored when each check point is passed. Player finishing with highest point count (within operator-adjustable game time) is the winner. Top score flashes to show off the win.

You're the winner every time. The special removable mirrored canopy (for spectators) helps make Indy 800 stand out anywhere. Turns dead island floor space into more profits.
No Pit Stops. A complete set of back-up components is supplied with every game.
Special feature. A remote master control module that lets you start and impulse each car comes with every Indy 800. Great for staging racing events.
